ROGERS EXPLAINS WHY HE DIDN'T FLY OVER OCEAN

(Special To The News)

S. S. ILE DE FRANCE, Feb. 3, 1930.—I have nothing to say and feel in no shape to say it, even if I did have. Lindbergh's ocean is as sore to the world as a defeated candidate.

When I hinted that I would fly back if I could, I received a lot of cables offering to take me on, among them Mrs. Keith Miller, one of our best airshes.

My wife is not jealous, but she just never did like to have me stay out over the ocean all night with a strange woman, or even a friendly woman.

If we could have got in before dark, she wouldn't have minded. Course we could have taken a chaparral, but not as much gas—and gas is more beneficial.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Slag and ashes have been placed by street department employees of the city on North Street, at the corner of East, where a bad hole has given more than one motorist a bad moment. A deep hole existed at this point.

This is an epochal day in numerous homes about the city—the first day of school for some little boy or girl. With the opening of the second semester in New Castle schools, new pupils are taken in the kindergarten and first grade classes. Quite a large number were enrolled, reports from the schools indicate.

Pa Newc chanced to pick Homer Rodeheaver's song recital out of the air on Saturday night, and some of the songs that rang through the tabernacle here twenty years ago, were being sung. Rodeheaver was Billy Sunday's song leader when the memorable revival services were held in the tabernacle here. The tabernacle was located along Shadyside avenue in the rear of the Harmony station.

With the announcement that the Bell Company is planning an expenditure of $150,000 additional for improvements in this vicinity during the year, there is another indication of increased public utility work here this summer. The Water Company recently announced that some $50,000 will be expended in improvements to lines here this summer, and the Pennsylvania Power Company also announced some time since that there was planned a large outlay for improvements here.

Snow fences erected along the state highway in this district to prevent snow drifting on the roads are doing effective work. Several places along the roads there are remnants of drifts of large size that would have been on the highways without the protection of the snow fences. The highways are in good shape at the present time.

Apparently some patrons of the rural mail carriers in this area are not taking seriously the matter of removing the caricatures of Uncle Sam along the road supporting rural mail boxes. There are still several to be seen in this district.

Owing to some technicalities permission was given to withdraw the divorce case of Joseph Slamon against Anna Slamon by Judge Hildebrand this morning, upon the presentation of a petition in court asking leave to withdraw the case. It was intimated that another petition may be filed later.

Naval Sessions In Third Week; Progress Slow

Naval Delegates Still Attempting To Agree Upon Suitable Agenda

COMPROMISE MAY BE INSTITUTED

Today's Program Consists Of Private Meetings; Notes Are Compared

By HARRY R. FLORY
International News Service Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Feb. 3.—Entering upon their third week of conferences and discussions, the delegates to the London naval arms conference today were still attempting to agree upon a suitable method of bringing about limitation of armaments.

All the delegations are now pledged to accept a compromise between limitation by categories or by global tonnage but the French compromise now before the conference stands little chance of being accepted as it stands.

The British in particular will insist at tomorrow's meeting of the committee of the whole that there should be considerable adjustment of the modified French proposals especially regarding their division of war vessels into more than six categories.

Limited Categories.
In addition, the nations preferring limitation by categories the United States, Great Britain and Japan will attempt to limit the percentage of transfers from one category to another to a negligible quantity while French will insist upon 25 per cent.

Murderer Pays In Chair Today

Guiseppa 'Joe' Guida, 37, Bristol, Pa., Millworker Dies In Electric Chair

KILLED BECAUSE OF 'LOVE TRIANGLE'

By LEO V. DOLAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
ROCKVIEW PENITENTIARY, BELLEVILLE, Pa., Feb. 3.—Guiseppa 'Joe' Guida, 37-year-old millworker of Bristol, Pa., paid with his life in the electric chair today for the "love triangle" murder of John Tillot, husband of the woman the little Italian loved.

Guida, smiling and unafraid, "Rode The Thunderbolt" into oblivion at 7:06 this morning. The lethal charge of current hurled through his body at 7:02 a. m. and he was pronounced dead four minutes later by Dr. W. B. McLaughlin, prison physician.

At Break Of Day
Promptly at seven o'clock, just as the first rays of dawn were dispersing the murky gloom of early morning darkness about the grim pile of steel and masonry that is Rockview, Guida was summoned from his cell and started on the brief walk to the death chamber.

By his side walked Father Francis T. McCreech, prison chaplain, who had kept vigil through the last few hours with the condemned man. As Father McCreech and Guida and the guards paced slowly to the "Little Green Door," the priest intoned the litany for the dying.

"Lord have mercy on me"—Guida's responses were almost inaudible above the din of the machinery.

Air Mail Pilot Killed In Crash

New York To Boston Flier Almost Instantly Killed When Plane Crashes

(International News Service)
HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 3.—Cary T. Prigman, 30, of Lexington, Mass., an air mail pilot for the Colonial Airways, was almost instantly killed today, when his Pittcairn plane struck an observation post on a building at Brainard Field as he was preparing to land.

The left wing of the plane struck the post and crumpled. The plane kept on for about 100 yards before coming to earth with a crash that practically demolished it.

Groundhog Warns All King Winter Will Stay

If you had any ideas about stepping out in Spring finery in a few weeks, forget it.

Likewise, if your heavy flannels are getting thin, don't toss them away for six weeks at least.

The ground hog saw his shadow! Not only saw it, but walked in it and through it for an hour or more Sunday, and for six weeks at least, King Winter will hold the center of the stage.

Let those who will, and can, go South. Let the baseball teams prepare for their annual hegira, but those of us up North who have to work for a living, can expect to be chilly yet a while.

There seems to be a little argument about the Punksatney weather prophet's seeing his shadow. There was enough sun at noon and shortly after, for him to have seen a couple of shadows, and if the ground hog hies sunshine, he must have doubtlessly backed into his hole.

So that's that. The ground hog saw his shadow, we will have six more weeks of weather and the government at Washington still lives.

Health Officer To Serve In County

The new health officer is well known in the county district, and has been familiar with the work which he now will superintend. Physicians of the county are asked to address all business mail intended for him to George Montgomery, Lawrence county health officer, general delivery, New Castle, Pa.

Mr. Montgomery assumed his new duties on Saturday.

Wilbur May Be Taft's Successor

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—With the resignation of Chief Justice William Howard Taft of the United States supreme court, reports immediately were received here that Judge Curtis D. Wilbur of the United States circuit court of appeals and former secretary of the navy, would be advanced to the supreme bench.

"I am very much interested in the news," declared Judge Wilbur when informed by International News Service. "I am very sorry to hear of Justice Taft's resignation. He has been a very fine judge."

Representatives of other projects all over the country will be present at the meeting to push their claims for immediate action and the hearing will be a most interesting one.

The local men will return the latter part of the week. Mr. Chilton, having been confined to his home for several days as the result of injuries received last Thursday evening, when he slipped on the ice while on his way to attend the meeting of the Better Business Bureau. At first it was thought that the injury was not of a serious nature, but his ankle became badly swollen and it was found that ligaments in his leg had been torn loose at the ankle.

Trial List Dates Fixed By Court

Judge R. L. Hildebrand went over the trial list with attorneys this morning and fixed the dates for hearing civil cases during the weeks of common pleas court, beginning on February 10 and 17. Some of the cases had to be continued on account of the absence of attorneys in Florida and other places.

Some "long distance" hints and dints are contained in a letter just received from Fred L. Rentz, President of The News Company, who is at present in California, with his wife, enjoying a vacation.

Mr. Rentz writes of a number of former New Castle people that he has already encountered in the west, and also comments on conditions here in New Castle and Lawrence County. The letter follows:

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 1930.
George W. Conway,
Editor The News,
New Castle, Pa.
Dear George:
We have been here since last Saturday night and I had intended confining my writing to night letters. Since it costs $1.10 a letter, which means $7.70 a week, I have decided to again resort to the mails, where one can say a lot and a five cent air mail

Opinions Differ In Prohibition War In Congress

Everybody Has Something Different To Offer; Maelstrom Seethes Anew

HOME BREW ISSUE IS CONTROVERSIAL

Transfer Bill Expected To Be Reported To House Sometime Today

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The prohibition maelstrom seethed anew in congress today with interest divided between efforts to dry up society, to put federal officials to a "non-drinking" test, to legalize 2.75 beer to encourage home-brew and to tighten enforcement of the eighteenth amendment.

The administration's bill, transferring the prohibition bureau to the department of justice, may be formally reported to the house during the day by Chairman Williamson (R. of S. D. of the house committee on executive expenditures. He predicted its passage by the house probably Friday. At the last moment, the bill was amended to give Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon an equal voice with Attorney General William D. Mitchell in the control of industrial alcohol permits.

Not Unlawful
The home brew controversy, started by Rep. Fort (R. of N. J., close friend of President Hoover, threatened to involve every wet and dry leader in Washington. No recent issue has so bewildered the opposing forces. Fort, a dry, said citizens could drink light home-made beverages in their homes. Prohibition Commissioner James M. Doran, rather non-committal, said his dry agents would have difficulty in arresting anybody who did this.

Other dries and a few wets said it was not unlawful. But most of the wets and some dries denounced it as an evasion.

Hoping to throw this issue into the court, Rep. Laguardia (R. of N. J., a wet, volunteered to make intoxicating home-brew in his New York City home to test the legality of the practice in the courts. He challenged Doran to agree to arrest him if he turned out a batch of intoxicating beer in his home. The wets were awaiting for Doran's reply.

Seek 2.75 Beer
House wets, backing Rep. Dyer (R. of Mo., a wet, were preparing for hearings on his bill to legalize 2.75 beer. Thus far, the dries have fought such modifications very successfully.

The campaign of Senator William E. Borah (R. of Ida., a constitutional dry, against law enforcement of prohibition, continued on Page Two Michael Solczak, aged 55, of Chewton, met death in a peculiar way Sunday at five p. m.

He had been in Pittsburgh visiting his daughter over the week-end, and coming home Sunday evening alighted from the Pennsylvania train at Wampum, and started down the steps when, in some way or other, he made a mis-step, falling to the bottom.

Passengers from the same train who saw him fall rushed to his assistance and called a physician, but it was found nothing could be done for him. He succumbed within 10 minutes after the fall.

Coroner J. P. Caldwell was called and it was thought the man had broken his neck as well as fractured his skull by striking against the stones.

Mr. Solczak has been a resident of Chewton for a number of years. He was preceded in death just a year ago by his wife and is survived by the following children: Mrs. Pearl Oleak, Worthington, Pa.; Mrs. Mary Buchalski of Pittsburgh; Frank, of Ellwood City; Stella, Celia, Floyd and Joseph, at home. ## Jail Service At Irene's Cell La Guardia Will Not Be Molested

Woman Prisoner Takes Part In Saturday Night Service

DAGUE'S RELATIVES HAVE DESERTED HIM

For several weeks at least the cases against Irene Schroeder and Glenn Dague, charged with the murder of Corporal Brady Paul, the wounding of Patrolman Ernest Moore and the highway robbery of the automobile of Raymond C. Horner, will probably receive little attention publicly.

The two have been arraigned, have pleaded not guilty, have been given their preliminary hearings and the only thing standing between them and their trial is the action of the grand jury, which meets on March 3rd. District Attorney John S. Powelson is preparing his case and is working on the assumption that the commonwealth has sufficient evidence to send the pair of them to the electric chair.

Resignation Is Given To Hoover By Chief Justice

White House Announces Receipt Of Resignation At Noon Today

NO ACTION HAS YET BEEN TAKEN

Chief Justice Taft Has Been In Failing Health For Three Years

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—William Howard Taft, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, today tendered his resignation to President Hoover.

The resignation was formally presented to the President by the jurist's son, Robert Taft.

No Action Taken
The White House announced receipt of the resignation but said no action had been taken.

Taft, in declining health for the last three years because of a bladder ailment, left Washington three weeks ago for a rest cure at Ashville, N. C. Before leaving he spent ten days in Garfield hospital here.

His physicians announced at that time the eminent jurist and former President of the United States was not an ill man but merely entered the hospital for treatment precautionary against a recurrence of the old ailment.

Was 27th President
Taft was the 27th President of the United States. He was elected Nov. 3, 1908 for the term beginning March 4, 1909 to March 4, 1913. He was re-nominated for the President in June 1912, but was defeated in the November election by Woodrow Wilson, Democrat.

The resignation was written in legal form and it was indicated Mr. Hoover will accept it with regrets either later today or tomorrow.

Harrisburg Men Get Stiff Terms

Two Harrisburg Realtors Given Heavy Sentences And Fines For Manipulations

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—Charles C. Stark and Gus H. Thomas, Harrisburg realtors, today were sentenced to jail terms and ordered to pay fines for defrauding the state of more than $129,000 through the manipulation of spurious cattle indemnity vouchers.

Sentence was passed on the men in Dauphin county court by Judge Hargest. Stark received a jail term of from three to six years in the penitentiary and fined $300, while Thomas was sentenced to a prison term of from six to 12 years and fined $600.

The severity of Thomas' sentence, double that of Stark's, was due to the fact that Thomas, a former employee of the bureau of animal industry, was alleged to have developed the system by which the swindle was perpetrated.

The sentences date from January 14 last at which time both men entered pleas of guilty to the charges lodged against them.

Arthur Mometer

Just a week it seems, since the term began, just a little time and they started in, and here today so the teachers say, is the time for the second half to begin. It isn't long if you wander back to the day when the bell carried them back to class, teacher and student and principal, janitor, youngsters, each lad and lass. But the half is over and soon again we'll hear the bell toll for the final call, and the army will scatter to wood and glen, and leave a deserted classroom and hall. The second semester is started now, and the gang moves out and is on its way, pointed and set for the June day goal, the weather, still damp, forty-two today.

Fraud Is Alleged In Alley Marriage

Petition Is Presented To Court
To Have Alleged Marriage
Decreed Void

Annulment of the marriage of Fred Alley and Angela Maslyk is asked in a petition filed at the prothonotary's office by the woman's parents, Joe and Mary Maslyk.

It is claimed that in October 1928, Fred Alley, by deceit and fraud, induced Angela Maslyk, who was minor to leave her home. Two nights, it is claimed, were spent in a barn in Shenango township, after which the couple went to Washington county and from there to Steubenville, O., where a marriage license was obtained and a ceremony performed. They then went to Canonsburg, Washington county.

It is claimed that the license was obtained by misrepresentation. Afterwards there was a hearing in juvenile court here and Mrs. Alley was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd at Pittsburgh, from which she has since been released.

Alley was arrested on other charges and was sent to Huntingdon Reformatory, where he is now confined. It is claimed that there never was any legal marriage and for that reason it is asked that it be annulled.

NAVAL SESSIONS IN THIRD WEEK; PROGRESS SLOW

The British will further insist that there shall be no transfers between the three major categories, battleships, eight-inch gun cruisers and aircraft carriers, and are anxious to prevent transfers from surface vessel tonnage to submarine tonnage.

Until these questions are settled, it will be difficult for the delegates to approach an agreement on figures of tonnage.

Private Meetings. Today's program was confined to private meetings at which the various delegates compared notes on their written observations on the French compromise proposal which are to be submitted at the conference tomorrow. While the other delegations probably will submit copious written observations, it is understood the American delegates have decided not to submit anything in writing for the meantime, preferring to await further clarification of the transactional proposal.

Hugh Gibson, American ambassador to Switzerland, conferred at length today with Rene Massigli, French minister of marine, regarding the compromise proposal. Premier MacDonald received Bejiro Wakatsuki, chief Japanese delegate, for a brief while this morning at 10 Downing street, to discuss the present state of negotiations, while it is likely the transactional proposal will be talked over at a meeting this afternoon between the premier and Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, American delegation chief.

Premier MacDonald's cabinet met at 10:45 a. m. for a lengthy session, most of which was devoted to discussion of naval affairs.

Marshal in Connecticut, before a senate judiciary sub-committee to learn whether he takes an 'occasional shot' of intoxicating liquor. If he does, Borah will oppose his confirmation. Other Senate drys have endorsed Borah's plan to confirm only "non-drinkers" for appointment to federal law enforcement posts.

Borah also has under advisement before another judiciary sub-committee the reappointment of Sawyer Smith as U. S. Attorney in Eastern Kentucky. Smith was charged with law enforcement of the dry but produced proof of a very efficient record. The Idaho senator was ready to put the same test to a dozen other federal appointees.

He was taken before Alderman Green this morning, where a charge of violating the Snyder Act was made against him by Chief of Police C. C. Horner.

He will be given a hearing Tuesday afternoon.

MURDERER PAYS IN CHAIR TODAY

the shuffling steps that echoed with certainty through the dimly lighted corridor.

A certain tenseness about his tightened lips and a momentary faltering in his stride were the only evidences of emotion that Guida vouchsafed when his eyes fell upon the drab oaken chair in the little death room.

Contempt For Elliott
He glared expectantly at the assembled officials, witnesses and physicians; shrugged his shoulders when his gaze fell upon Robert G. Elliott, the official executioner; then strode unaided to that grim mechanism reserved by society for the punishment of those who are branded with the mark of Cain.

Guards and attendants, rehearsed in their roles, went swiftly about the work of preparing the condemned man. His left trouser leg, previously slit, was rolled up and electrode applied to the hairless flesh. The death mask, resembling nothing so much as a football player's headgear, was clamped over Guida's face. His arms were strapped to the chair arms.

Whine Vibrates Room.
With no trace of emotion visible on his saturnine face, Executioner Elliott tiptoed softly to the ordinary electric switch on the wall. Tall, ungainly, and cadaverous of feature, Elliott awaited the signal with the same lack of interest that characterized his actions two years ago when a twitch of his wrist sent the man-made lightning crashing through the bodies of Ruth Snyder and Judd Gray at Sing Sing prison.

From the twisted lips of the man in the chair came the mumbled responses to the Litany
"Eternal rest grant to him, O Lord."
"Eternal rest grant to me—"

Elliott's fingers tightened and tugged on the switch. The jolt of the current cut off the chant in mid-speech. A shuddering vibration vibrated through the little room.

Guida's jaw dropped—sagged. His body twisted and strained against the leather harness that encompassed his breast. The veins in his wrist knotted and corded where the straps held them. Little wisps of blue smoke curled lazily upward.

Huddled Posture.
A wheezing sigh flattened the chest of the figure in the chair. Distinct from the whine of the current came the final exhalation of breath. Guida's body shuddered and slowly relaxed in a grotesque, huddled posture. His head drooped forward in its mad motion for a change of venue. This likely was made, if it is made, on March 10.

Telephone calls and personal calls have been made by men and women desiring to see the two, but have been turned away. Between now and the latter part of this month there appears little likelihood that the case will blossom forth save the possibility of the motion for a change of venue. This likely was made, if it is made, on March 10.

Fail To Return For Forfeits

Lieutenant Pete Hillers, Detective John Young and Officers M. J. Young and McMullen while investigating the cases of William Bauder Sunday night, visited the place of Marie Morse, North Beaver street, and found some liquor in use.

The Morse woman was arrested as the keeper of a disorderly house and two visitors as visitors in a disorderly house. She put up a forfeit of $25 and the visitors $10 each for their appearance this morning.

They failed to appear and the money was declared the property of the city.

RESIGNATION IS GIVEN TO HOOVER BY CHIEF JUSTICE

to quit as the chief justice of the highest court in the nation.

The White House said Taft's letter "Merely followed legal form" and would not be released to the press.

It was further indicated at the executive offices that the jurist's action did not come as a surprise.

Taft is 73 years old and is not the man he was five or ten years ago because of his recent illness. Only two years ago he was a patient at Garfield from the bladder disorder.

The chief justice will end his stay at the Asheville resort later today and return to his Washington home. He stated this in his letter.

The announcement came as a surprise to the supreme court staff, although it is understood that associate justices had been informed of the chief justice's intention.

Attaches of the court immediately asked newspaper representatives for information.

Rumors that the chief justice was dying at Asheville, N. C., spread through the capitol but attaches professed ignorance.

The son was accompanied to the executive offices by William D. Mitchell, attorney general. They were closeted with the president for more than an hour.

JAIL SERVICE AT IRENE'S CELL

has been given the freedom of the jail corridor. Locked in their cells on the second floor and he on the first floor, they are not permitted to see anyone but their attorneys, nor are they given any more than the ordinary privileges allowed prisoners.

Saturday evening religious services were held in the jail, with Irene making a request that she be permitted to take part in them. The services in the women's department were held in front of her cell and she joined lustily in the singing of hymns and psalms. Dague also took part in the services held in the men's department.

Donnie, the four-and-a-half-year-old son of Irene, was admitted to her cell Sunday afternoon and she spent her time in singing and crying. At times her voice could be heard in song on the first floor and later she was heard crying.

Dague's Family Absent
With over a week gone by since he was returned to New Castle, Glenn Dague has heard nothing from his family, either by mail, telephone, telegram or personal visitation. Apparently his brothers and his wife are making no effort to aid him, and what aid he has received thus far has been provided by Irene, who insisted that the lawyers who defended her must defend him.

Curious minded people who want to see the pair have been refused by Sheriff Johnston. He intends to allow no visitors in to see the pair, the only ones being attorneys and family connections.

VALUE OF COMING CENSUS

THE 1930 census will cost the government $40,000,000, and the taxpayer may, with justice, ask if the results justify such tremendous expenditure of the people's money. Analysis shows that they do.

Representation in the lower branch of congress is based on the census figures. Equal representation depends on an accurate enumeration of the population by districts and states. The congressional violation 10 years ago of the constitutional mandate for the reapportionment of representation in the house every 10 years makes the census this year of more than ordinary importance.

There are other ways in which the decennial stock-taking pays for itself. Immigration restriction legislation is governed by population figures. They guide congress and government departments in their conduct of the nation's business. And, being constantly available to private business, they prove a valuable asset to large enterprise.

Scores of different questions will be asked by the 100,000 enumerators this year. Each individual must answer from 30 to 40 questions. The first census in 1790 ascertained only the name of the head of the family and the number in the family.

There is hardly a conceivable limit to the value of the vast amount of information which the census bureau will collect this year. It will supply accurate data for research and legislation, regarding agriculture, labor, industry, education and scores of other matters. It will also indicate various national trends.

FUTURE FARMERS

Two years ago the federal board of vocational education began organizing into state clubs members of agricultural classes in the high schools. Thirty states have been partly organized with a total membership of 27,000. They are now to be formed into a national organization to be known as the Future Farmers of America.

The government's objective is the stemming of the tide of young men and women away from the farm with consequent loss to agriculture. It hopes to interest more farm children in agriculture and to show them that they can intelligently choose farming for a career.

By fostering this movement the federal government will aid both the high schools and agriculture. More and better farmers is the promise held forth for agriculture. Farm parents are to have less cause to protest that the high schools are taking their children away from the farm by teaching them everything but farming.

What better service can the vocational education board perform than by striving to make the rural high school a place where scientific farming, according to modern methods and open-minded to every advance, will be shown as an attractive industry, promising rewards equivalent to those offered by urban occupation.

HOOVER ASKS FOR NO FAVORS

That was a characteristic letter which President Hoover sent to the Virginia legislature the other day. It seems that a bill has been introduced in that body which would permit the president to fish at any season of the year in the Rapidan river, which runs by the mountain camp where Mr. Hoover goes for the rest and relaxation. He expressed deep appreciation of the compliment involved, but said he thought that the laws should be uniform and that an exception should not be made even for the president of the United States. Moreover, he has no intention of fishing except where others can fish. He further expressed the opinion that no stream should be fished out of season.

This, of course, will put an end to the proposed legislation. The motive back of it is easily understood. The Virginians wanted to show the high regard they have for the occupant of the white house, and they felt that a single exception, in view of the circumstances, would not affect the purpose of the fish laws. But it has given the president an opportunity to let it be known that he does not seek and will not accept special favors. In addition to this he no doubt desires to set an example for the remainder of his fellow countrymen. His attitude is based upon the principles which govern the republic. And incidentally it upholds his contention for law enforcement.

SUPPRESSING RELIGION IN RUSSIA

A dispatch from Moscow stating that the authorities there had ordered the bells of the city's "forty times forty" churches silenced is a reminder of the determined effort which the Soviet government has been making to stamp out religion in that unhappy country. The assertion that this latest move has been made because the bells disturbed the rest of the workers does not sound very convincing. Indeed, a report from another town tells of bells being removed from four churches and melted down for commercial use in the government industrial plan. In line with this policy is the statement that another church has been converted into a tractor plant.

One does not have to be a believer in revealed religion to understand the futility of this sort of thing. It has been tried in other countries in times of revolution and has never been permanently successful. The attempt to blot out the idea of an overruling providence always fails. Nor is it consistent with a rational conception of liberty—either civil or religious.

In this country we take pride in feeling that the echoes of the Liberty Bell have been prolonged by encouraging the school bell and the church bell—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Beautiful Santa Barbara.

Must Sea Gulls Die?

Two Ifs May Save Them.

Dr. Sansum, Wise Man.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1930, King Features
Synd., Inc.)

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 3.—This is written in the Santa Barbara Biltmore Hotel, at the edge of the Pacific. High mountains in the background, palms, live oak trees and flowers all along the level shore and under your eyes the ocean, as blue as the eyes of a Nordic baby, stretches seven thousand miles across to Asia.

Hotel men from other parts should see this hotel idea, the newest, many small houses, built in the Spanish mission style, around a main building.

You drive from Los Angeles, about 100 miles, in two and a half hours, over a magnificent, new and perfect road.

It runs along the ocean's edge, mile after mile. The side of the mountain that comes down to the ocean's edge, had been cut away, leaving a straight wall, hundreds of feet high.

Entering Santa Barbara you say to yourself, that it must be about like this inside St. Peter's gate. You have passed the oil wells, pumping offshore in the Pacific, and heaven knows how much oil there is under that ocean floor. Submarine exploration may tell us.

Within Santa Barbara, commerce seems as far away as the Antarctic. Girls drive big cars. Men strut in polo boots, well pleased with themselves.

And ducks, thousands of them, wild, swim on the lagoon, built for bird protection and breeding, thanks to Senator Clark's daughter. She gave the money.

R. G. Gernard, member of California's game commission, and owner of the Santa Barbara Morning Press, says sea gulls are the worst enemies of wild ducks and other wild life.

Congress, says he, should authorize and finance extermination of the millions of sea gulls in Alaska. A small bounty and the Esquimaux would kill them off quickly.

Seagulls destroy the eggs and young of wild ducks, in their northern breeding grounds, millions of them. They dive and devour the eggs of the salmon. Adult fish, near the spawning grounds, are seen floundering aimlessly in shallow water. Easily caught, they are found to be blind, both eyes picked out by gulls, not strong enough to lift the heavy salmon.

Congress should do something about that, with two "ifs." If the gulls can be spared from their work as scavengers, for the sake of ducks and salmon.

And if it makes much difference whether gulls have the fun of eating the ducks as babies, or men have the fun of shooting them, as full grown ducks.

Herbert Fleischacker, of San Francisco, is here, looking, as usual for something more to buy, he tells you that everything will be all right with business, after two or three months of repentance. That until you have seen Delmonico, you have seen nothing.

Californians are like the Italians of Dante's time. Each thinks his principle the one spot white. The fact is that every mile on this coast has something that is to be found nowhere else all the way from the palms in the south to the giant fir trees and roaring mountain rivers in the north, it is all a land of wonder.

But the object of this trip is still to be told. In Denver F. R. Bonifils, who owns the Post, said "You must see Dr. Sansum, in Santa Barbara, nobody like him." Nine men in Los Angeles said, "You must see Dr. Sansum, when you go to Santa Barbara. Nobody like him." Here, in Santa Barbara, everybody asks, "Have you seen Dr. Sansum? Nobody like him."

The writer has seen Dr. William David Sansum today, and can testify that there are many doctors unlike him. He knows his business and has added to the world's supply of medical knowledge.

His book, "The Normal Diet," published in St. Louis by the Mosby Company, should be read by every physician, including those who like Dr. Sansum, know their work and take it seriously.

From him you learn what it means to lack acid in the stomach. At eighty years of age, 30 per cent of men lack it entirely, at seventy years, 70 per cent lack it, without it no complete digestion. You learn why many are too thin, many too fat. The fat are negatively fortunate. If nature had not distributed their surplus fat in layers, over their bodies, and they had been compelled to eliminate it, they would be dead.

Dr. Sansum treats diabetes with a diet, consisting largely of food usually forbidden. And he can make even a layman understand that it is the right diet. It was Dr. Sansum's scientific advice that enabled the witty Sam Blythe to get rid of 60 surplus pounds in a short time. Blythe wrote a book about it entitled "Get Rid of That Fat."

Unfortunately Dr. Sansum is overcrowded with patients and cannot undertake a new work until after April first, at the earliest. So do not come here now expecting to see him. Old-fashioned doctors laughed at the great Pasteur, and refused to admit him to their academy of science. They would admit him now. Doctors, open-minded, will want to know of the research work that Dr. Sansum has done, and is doing.

If anything is spoken for just, it is not fair to turn it to earnest—Plautus.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:20. Sun rises tomorrow 7:08.

Oh, well; trying to make ends meet will solve the problem of those who couldn't think of anything to do.

A few years without surplus spending money won't hurt the country. About all of the antiques had been bought up, anyway.

Every day brings new glory to the prophet who said the world would end in 1914 and after that we'd be living in hell.

And now when you attend a "great emotional talkie," you wonder whether it's art or liquor.

A fountain pen, when it's nearly empty, usually spills the little it has in stock. Something like the human head.

All the world need do to abolish armament is to abolish the fact that everybody's sweet dog looks mean to a stranger.

AN ERROR

A motorist driving through a small country town was pulled up for excessive speed.

"Didn't you see the notice, 'Dead Slow'?" asked the policeman.

"Of course I did, but I thought it meant your town!"

Yet the great man seldom is too busy to listen while a caller tells him what a great guy he is.

"The narrow-minded, meddlesome community" means: "Decent people watch so close I can't get away with a thing."

Success is relative. It consists in making money faster than mother and the kids can spend it.

BRIDGE TRAGEDY

"Gracious," said the doctor, "how did you get these awful bruises on your shins? Are you a hockey player?"

"Oh, no, I just led back my wife's weak suit."

Americanism—Feeling superior to backward peoples who can't read; supporting a dozen silly magazines printed for morons.

It must be wonderful to make so much money your family can make whoopee while you're in the sanitarium.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

Here we have Mrs. Bertha Z. Blindens, president of the C. L. & H. organization, of Melting Point, Wisconsin, who, in response to our telegraphic query, wires as follows: The liquor incident which took place in our city a few days ago should prove to every fair-minded person that congress should lose no time in passing a bill which will enable the federal government to place an armed guard on every telephone pole in the country. This is the only way we can prevent such disgraceful orgies as that which took place here a few days ago.

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon and was called to order by the speaker.

The chaplain, Rev. Sherer Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We approach Three in repentance and confession. Hear us, gracious Master, dwell in fellowship with our souls, exalt our ideals, enlarge our vision, fill the veins of our thoughts with the throbbings of immortal courage, and lift us into the very presence of God. Take our entire country under Thy guidance. Thou art calling us not by the whispered vision of the night but loudly thundered by the voice of the day. Yes, Thou art calling us to help, not by the might of arms or the conquest of commerce but by the sovereignty of service. O God, our noblest triumph will be in the expansion of our holy faith in the world's saviour. Persuade us, we pray, that to save our own land we must help save the world. In the name of Jesus, Amen.

The KANSAS CITY STAR agrees that "so long as the representatives get as good pay as senators, they have no real kick coming. And if they have no monetary car to transport them through the tunnel from the capitol to the house office building," continues The Star, "that is their own affair. They probably need the exercise. But so long as the senators have the predominant say about the appointment of district attorneys and marshals and United States judges and ambassadors, while the representatives have to content themselves with postmasters, and so long as senators can talk longer without reaching for a glass of water than members of the house, we fancy that Speaker Longworth is going to have a job to induce the country to cut out references to the 'lower house'."

But the senate has been leisurely picking the bill to pieces amid a running fire of debate which has made the headlines all over the nation and impressed on many folks the idea that the house proposes and the senate disposes."

"Not all the members of the house take satisfaction," according to the HARTFORD COURANT, "in an arrangement which achieves efficiency by rigorously subordinating individual inclinations to the regulation of the dominant machine. Some even cast their eyes longingly down the corridors toward the senate chamber, where a man can open his mouth to express an opinion as well as to vote."

Reference To "Lower House" Starts Friendly Discussion

Longworth's Protest Against "Lower House" Arouses Friendly Interest In Relative Rank Of Branches Of Congress

Speaker Nicholas Longworth's protest against reference to the house of representatives as the "lower house" of congress has aroused considerable comment of a not-too-serious nature.

A typical reaction to use of the terms "upper" and "lower" is expressed by the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR, which views the terms as one having "described the House of Lords and the House of Commons of Great Britain, but are not to be found in our constitution and never fitted here."

That paper contends: "In theory, and often in fact, a senator is a more important political person than a congressman, because the one represents an entire state, the other only a district of the state. But the body of which a congressman is a part is quite as important as the senate. Though the senate has the sole power to confirm or reject presidential appointments, the house has the sole power to originate bills for raising revenues, and without revenues governments can not exist. Senators are fewer, more loquacious, and, by and large, more cantankerous than congressmen; also, they are more conspicuous and influential in the national party convention."

Assuming that "in the early days the distinction came about because the members of the senate then were chosen by legislatures, while those of the house were elected by popular vote," the CHARLESTON DAILY MAIL says of the development of their respective standings: "There was a time when we can remember when the senate, considered the more deliberative and steady body, was relied on to act as a check on what was considered the more emotional house; but today the senate is quite as emotional as the house ever was, and there are even times when the house appears to be more stable than the senate. Theoretically, at least, the house is the equal of the senate. The powers conferred on it by the constitution are certainly equal. The consent of the house on legislative acts is on a par with that of the senate so far as enacting legislation is concerned; while the general public of today will be apt to consider that in other things as well the house of representatives is the equal of that body."

A somewhat different position is taken by the YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR, which remarks that "the house of representatives is rather sensitive all at once over what has come to be an accepted custom in making reference to the two branches of congress. It is a little surprising, however," continues that paper, "that the speaker, in invoking authorities to support his contention, overlooked the fact that representatives and senators are on an equality when it comes to salaries."

The KANSAS CITY STAR agrees that "so long as the representatives get as good pay as senators, they have no real kick coming. And if they have no monetary car to transport them through the tunnel from the capitol to the house office building," continues The Star, "that is their own affair. They probably need the exercise. ## Bill Of Fare, Over Half Century Old Reveals Many "Original" Dishes Listed

By JANET KISSINGER

A glance at a menu in the possession of Robert Whaley, of Chestnut street, will show you that this is no ordinary bill of fare. The menu is the one given to all firemen, at the Grand Firemen's Banquet, at the Cochran House, November 28, 1878, over a half century ago.

A picture of a set of false teeth, prettily decorated the top of the slip of paper. Then it lists the ordinary bill of fare—soup, fish, cold dishes, roast, entrees, vegetables, desserts and liquors.

But it doesn't take long to find out that the menu is a huge joke. Under the heading of liquors, are listed Shenango river water, Neshannock Water, Bay Rum, Hard Water, Soft Water, Salt Water, Soda Water and Dish Water.

Under the heading of "Pastries" are Sponge Pies, cut bias, Leather Pies, with buckles, Sawdust Pudding, a la Pine Sauce.

How are these for desserts?—Grind Stone Ice Cream, Yeast Cakes and Door Jam.

Cold dishes included broken ice, cold ice, raw ice, ice berg and rich relations. For Tongue, are listed Old Maid's Lip Vinegar Sauce, Mother-in-Law-Tongue and Son-in-Law's Sons. The bottom notice on the menu reads as follows:—

"On entering the dining room, each gentleman will be asked how he likes the Cochran House, and if he says the banquet should have been held somewhere else, the location will be immediately changed. Every waiter will be furnished with a libretto button; hold bouquet, full dress suit, and his hair will be parted in the middle. Any one of the waiters can wait on forty gentlemen at once and give every gentleman the best dish in the house, and answer all questions in Greek, Latin, Hebrew, Chocktaw, Sioux, Irish, German, or any other polite language at the same moment without changing a hair. Any gent not getting his dishes red hot or ice cold as desired, or experiencing a delay of ten seconds after giving his order, will please mention the fact to the committee, and the cook and waiters will be blown from the mouth of a cannon in front of the Cochran House at once."

How a Family Doctor made Millions of Friends

FIFTEEN years after his graduation, Dr. Caldwell became one of the best-known members of his profession. A single prescription made him famous. And for forty years it has continued to make friends.

As fast as people could tell others about the marvelous way this prescription corrects constipation and relieves other troubles caused by sluggish bowels, demand for it spread until Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it filled in quantities; bottled and distributed through drug stores.

Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. Millions of people would never think of using anything else when they're headachy, bilious, feverish, or weak; when breath is bad, tongue is coated or they are suffering from nausea, from gas, or lack of appetite, etc.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as you buy it from your drug store is made in accordance with the original formula from only herbs and other pure ingredients. It is pleasant tasting; its action is thorough in the most obstinate cases; gently effective for women and children. Above all, it represents a doctor's choice of what is safe for the bowels.

Hoover Heights Opens Convention

Returned Missionary From China Tells Of Work Being Done There

The annual Missionary convention opened last evening at the Hoover Heights tabernacle, Morris street. Indications are that it will be one of the best conventions held in recent years. The pastor stated that the amount of the pledge made at last year's convention for missionary support was paid in with the lack then of less than thirty-five dollars. This, he expected would be in before the present convention was over.

Rev. Wm. G. Davis, for 24 years a missionary to Central China spoke at all of the services yesterday. As the Chinese make great use of posters and streams, the missionaries take advantage to use these to teach the gospel. At the morning service he had four of these posters from which he gave his talk. These depicted the destroying effect of sin, how man was unable to help himself, how the power of the gospel of the cross picked a man from the pit and made a new creature of him. The last series of pictures pictured the ninety-nine sheep safe in the fold, the one lost and found and the rejoicing when it was brought home.

Rev. Davis spoke at the young people's service, the room being full. He spoke of the songs of the Chinese, of the language and several interesting incidents.

At the evening service Mr. Davis again spoke briefly from five other charts he had, which had been made by his wife. He then related briefly about the revolutions and counter revolutions in China. Many incidents showing God's care and provision were cited. Often they carried on, not knowing but what each day would be their last. The students caused the most of the trouble and incited the greatest feeling against the foreigners. When they were ordered to evacuate, and leave all they had except what they could carry, their own Chinese servants bared the floor of the compound and would not release them till they had met certain demands. But God's hand was seen even here, for in the delay they secured the rental of their house to a governmental official who kept it from plunder.

This evening Miss Helen Sherwood of French West Africa will give missionary tidings and Dr. E. Ralph Hooper of Toronto, Canada will give the Bible message.

Boy Preacher Will Be Heard

Junior Lehman, the boy evangelist from the Franklin Gospel tabernacle, Franklin, Pa., will speak in the Simpson M. E. church on North Liberty street Tuesday evening at 7:45.

The boy, who is but 15 years of age, has gained remarkable prominence throughout the country because of his forceful, soul stirring gospel messages over the radio. He broadcasts weekly over station WLBK, Oil City.

Junior will also speak at New Bedford M. E. church at 7:45 Wednesday evening, February 5.

Robbery Occurs At South Mill Street Wrecking Place Saturday Night

Place of business of Harry's Place Auto Wrecking Company, 604 South Mill street, was visited by thieves Saturday night or Sunday morning.

The fact that the robbery had occurred was told the police Sunday morning when it was discovered that it had occurred.

Detective C. G. Logan and Officer Thomas Lynch made the investigation and found that the locks on the warehouse had been broken in effecting an entrance.

The loss as far as could be determined included twenty-five second hand tires of various sizes and makes and two Buick Radiators.

COLDS

EVERY year since the introduction of Vicks VapoRub, more and more people have given up the old-fashioned way of "dosing" colds and turned to this modern external method. Today the whole trend of medical practice is away from "needless" dosing.

Mothers of young children especially appreciate Vicks, because it cannot upset delicate stomachs as "dosing" is so apt to do. Just rubbed on, Vicks acts through the skin like a plaster; and, at the same time, it gives off medicated vapors which are inhaled direct to the inflamed air-passages.

To keep pace with the ever-increasing demand for this better method of treating colds, the famous Vicks slogan has again been changed, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly."

YOUR INCOME TAX

No. 7.
One of the chief sources of income is "compensation for personal services rendered." All of the various types of compensation, unless such income is specifically exempt by statute, should be included in the taxpayer's return of gross income. In general, it includes salaries, wages, fees, commissions, bonuses, tips, honorariums, prizes, awards, pensions in recognition of past services, etc.
Compensation for services should be reported for taxation purposes in the year it is received, or made unqualifiedly subject to demand. If the services were rendered during the year 1929, or even prior thereto, but the compensation was not received until 1930, the entire amount is taxable in the year received, when the taxpayer is reporting on the cash receipts basis. More individuals use the cash receipts basis in reporting net income.

The salaries of Federal officers and employees are subject to the income tax, except the salaries of Federal judges and the President of the United States. The following items also are subject to the tax: Salaries of Members of the House of Representatives and United States Senate; fees received by ministers of the gospel for funerals, baptisms, marriages, masses, and like services; Federal jury fees, executors' fees, fees received by a referee, trustee, or receiver under the National Bankruptcy Act; and retired pay.

Peter's Adventures

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

ON DUTY

Peter stared at little Lizard-Beetle. The fellow was so small. And certainly he seemed harmless enough except for his ferocious expression. What did the Beetle mean when he said he was a friend to the Humans and a foe to the foes of the Four-Foots. Peter's curiosity could stand it no longer.

"Who are these enemies you are talking about, Lizard-Beetle?" demanded the boy. "Where are they? What do you do to them when you catch them? How can a scrap of an insect like yourself be a great soldier?" A smile curled Peter's lip and Lizard-Beetle saw it. Right away he grew angry. His tail perked back and forth. He opened his mouth in that most unpleasant way he had. "Stupid young Four-Foot," remarked he at last, his voice way down deep in his throat. "If you had any sense at all you would know that size has nothing to do with valor. Nor with value. I am little and I admit it, but I have the strong heart of a lion. Why only the other day, alone I destroyed a whole army of dangerous aphides."

More mystery. Aphides! Peter had never heard the word before. "Who on earth are aphides?" asked the boy. Biffie and Merry Uncle Great Eye shrieked with glee at the young Four-Foot's ignorance. But Lizard-Beetle was disgusted. "If I were you I'd be ashamed to confess that such an important part of my education had been neglected," scoffed he. "There are no better known folks in all insect land. No, nor folks more feared. The aphides are the—"

"HE LOOKED SO FIERCE THAT PETER DREW BACK"

But not yet was Peter to learn. In the very middle of his explanation Lizard-Beetle came to a dead stop to stare at the clump of timothy grass waving in the wind. What was he looking at? Peter could see nothing. "Go on with the story, Lizard-Beetle," begged the boy. But Lizard-Beetle paid no heed. Instead his tail wriggled furiously, and he looked so fierce that Peter drew back. To be sure the Beetle was much smaller than Peter himself, but to judge from the Lizard's own words it didn't pay to take any chances.

Margaret Couzens Weds Bank Clerk

Daughter Of Senator Couzens, Heiress To Fifty Million Weds Clerk

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Miss Margaret Couzens, the nineteen-year-old daughter and heiress to the $50,000,000 fortune of Senator James Couzens, of Michigan, eloped to Baltimore Saturday and married William Chewning, youthful bank clerk.

The young married couple were returning here to an uncertain welcome in the Couzens home. The Senator was plainly shocked by the elopement and withheld his parental blessing from the couple pending an explanation when he meets them in the Couzens home here.

Chewning, a bank clerk living on his salary, is the son of a prominent physician in Fredericksburg, Va., and comes from one of the "old line" families of Virginia. In Virginia parlance he belongs to the "F. F. V."—the "First Families of Virginia."

The daughter's name is Margaret but she has been known among her friends as "Margo."

Make-up is getting less and less obvious. Color and powder must be put on to look as much like the natural complexion as possible.

Dressy coats for juniors for spring show Cossack influence, capes and flat fur trimming.

SHE THOUGHT:

"Nice boy—but 'B. O.' makes you impossible."

Yet, to be polite, SHE SAID:

"I'm terribly sorry—but I won't be in any night this week."

Girls liked him at first .. but couldn't forgive "B.O."

SHE DID so hate to turn him down. He was good-looking, agreeable, just the type she liked. But what could she do? "B.O."—body odor. No, she couldn't overlook that.

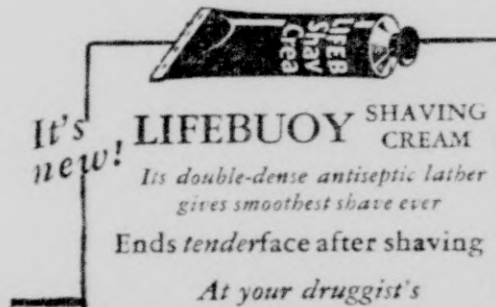

Fortunately he discovered his fault later and the simple way to correct it. Today he's well liked—welcomed everywhere—engaged to the very girl who once thought him "impossible."

Yet, it's easy to avoid offending. Just wash and bathe with Lifebuoy, the delightfully refreshing toilet soap millions love. Its mild, abundant, deep-cleansing antiseptic lather purifies pores—quickly ends "B.O." Its pleasant, extra-clean scent, that vanishes as you rinse, tells you Lifebuoy purified!

Wonderful for complexions

Thousands of women depend on Lifebuoy—and Lifebuoy alone—to keep their complexions fresh, clear and radiant with health-beauty. Try it. See how quickly its purifying lather freshens dull, tired skins. Adopt Lifebuoy today.

Rigid Hunt Being Resumed To Locate Two Missing Airmen

Belief Exists That Wild Animals Have Devoured Ben Eielson And Earl Borland

(International News Service) NOME, Alaska, Feb. 3.—Nine men have resumed digging operations in their search for the bodies of Lieut. Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland, whose shattered plane was found in Siberia.

The natives and fliers who have been searching the snow drifts surrounding the wreckage were joined yesterday by two men who were brought from the ice-bound trader Nanuk.

During the past week searchers have found personal effects of the fliers, including Borland's flying helmet, but have located no trace of the bodies.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 3.—Arriving here Saturday on his way to Fairbanks, Alaska, Ole Eielson, father of the missing Arctic flier, declared he fears his son's body was devoured by wild animals.

In stating his theory, Eielson pointed out that searchers have reported finding pieces of wearing apparel belonging to the two men, but are unable to find the remains.

January Temperature Is Found Below Normal

Statistics compiled by U. S. Weather Observer, B. F. Johnson, reveal the fact that temperatures for the month of January were below normal, making two years in succession that the weather in January was below the average in this respect.

The mean maximum temperature for the month was 36 degrees, while the mean minimum temperature was 18.1 degrees. The mean average for the month was 27.1 degrees. The mean average for the month is 28 degrees. It will thus be seen that the average for the month was 30 degrees below the average. In January of 1929, it was 4.7 degrees below normal, the month being an extremely cold one with the lowest temperature 16 degrees below. In January of this year, the lowest temperature was eight degrees below zero.

There was a greater variation in the temperature during 1929 than this year. The highest temperature in 1929 was 63 degrees, while this January it was 29 degrees. The greatest daily range in temperature this January was 35 degrees.

In addition to the temperature being abnormal, the amount of rainfall was also above the average. The total precipitation for the month was 4.11 inches, which is 1.20 inches above the normal for January. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours was .34 inches on the 13th. The total snowfall for the month was 8.10 inches. In January of 1929 the rainfall was 1.12 inches above normal, with 13.4 inches of snowfall. Snow which fell in January of 1930 did not melt as fast as this year, because it was colder.

Conditions during January of 1928 were far different. The temperature was 30 degrees above normal and there was only three inches of rainfall. The river stage in January, 1926 was 8.5 feet, while in January of 1929, it was 7.3 feet. The higher stage this year was due to an excess of rainfall in December, which was 1.35 inches above the normal. Although the precipitation during January of this year was above the normal mark, it was mostly snowfall and the cold weather kept the river stage down to some extent.

There were 25 days during January in which the precipitation was .01 inches or more. Two days were clear, 20 partly cloudy, and nine cloudy.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

With the annual visit of the groundhog here and gone, the usual arguments as to whether he did or whether he didn't see his shadow are now taking the spotlight from other and less pleasant arguments. Whether or not the groundhog saw his shadow is something you can settle for yourself, by my guess is that we will see six more weeks of winter anyway. And if this be heresy, sue me.

Robert McKinney White, lawyer, artist and city solicitor, was describing the flight of a tern at the lunch table. A tern as you may know is a sort of gull that flies long distances. The one Bob was describing had been found on the coast of Labrador and a band put on its leg. The next year or the next month or the next day or something, it was found on the west coast of Africa, 9000 miles away, with the band on its leg. And after the description of the bird and its flight, Dick Dana broke the silence by remarking, "Well, one good tern deserves another."

It's a bit early for valentines, but some "Constant Reader" has sent one to this column. It will not be described here. You wouldn't believe it anyway.

Sheriff Johnston never realized how many friends he had until the past two weeks. Every day he meets long lost friends on the street who remind him that they haven't been up to see him lately. They are coming up, going to bring the family along, and by the way what are the chances of seeing Irene? The answer is found in Webster's dictionary, under the "N's".

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Perry are back from Arizona, which statement really belongs on the society page. However, in this case, I am wondering if they brought back the cactus they promised to get.

Punny plant, the cactus. Nature must have found it necessary to protect it from bird of prey in years gone by for it has the finest defensive covering of needles you ever saw. From the little pin cushion cactus to the giant size, standing 12 or 14 feet high, they all have their needle covering and tramping on one in your bare feet would be as pleasant as sitting on a porcupine.

Joe Norris is on his way to the sunny south today and if he continues making the time he did between here and Washington, D. C., the distance to Hollywood, Fla., isn't so far. Joe left here at 9:30 in the morning and at 5:30 in the afternoon he was wiring from Washington that the roads were wet with snow. If the roads had been dry he probably would have been eating lunch in Baltimore.

For the next few weeks the only quotations of interest to him will be those on a train ticket. Sunshine. Prefer should be moving at about 88, with Common Frost getting never a movement over the board.

And a lot of his friends who still have their chains on will be getting post cards with the usual "having a good time, wish you were here."

Cleveland Chemist Believed Not Dead

Insurance Men Find Evidence That Missing Cleveland Chemist Is Still Alive

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—Dr. Ernest Watzel, missing Cleveland chemist, is not dead, developments today indicate. Several letters written on his portable typewriter and dated several weeks after he is supposed to have burned to death in his automobile on the banks of the Schuylkill river near Royersford have been turned over to the police.

At the time the charred wreckage of his motor car was found it was believed that he had either perished in flames or had drowned in the river a few feet away.

Investigators from a Cleveland insurance company found the missives. In each instance they were accompanied by payments on his life insurance policy.

Fires Bullet Into His Head

Effort At Suicide Not Likely To Be Success However

SHOOTING OCCURS SUNDAY EVENING

Discouraged by continued ill health and apparently feared that his age and health conditions were about to interfere with his employment, Louis Gentile, aged 63, late Sunday afternoon attempted to end his life by shooting himself in the head with a 38 calibre revolver.

The shooting occurred in front of the garage at the rear of the home of Sam Champ, 547 East Long avenue, a son-in-law of Mr. Gentile and was witnessed by Joseph Gentile, his thirteen year old son.

Fortunately for Mr. Gentile, the bullet failed to hit any vital place and unless complications arise, he will recover in a short time.

The police received the call at 5:35 p. m. Sunday evening, it being stated that a man had shot himself at 547 East Long avenue. Officers M. J. Young and George Kennedy answered the call.

On their arrival there, they found Mr. Gentile seated on the rear porch of the Camp home, where he has been residing. He was bleeding profusely from the nose and a wound on the forehead. The officers took him to the New Castle hospital.

On examination there by the physician called, it was found that the bullet had entered just below the right eye, passed through the bridge of the nose and came out over the left eye. Injuries sustained to the lips and mouth were found but these were sustained according to the police by a fall after shooting himself. The attending physician stated that he would not die from the effects of the wound unless the wound should become infected.

Joseph Gentile, aged 13, son of Louis Gentile was the only eye witness of the shooting. Just previous to the shooting the father had asked him to write a note stating that he was going to shoot himself because he was badly worried.

The boy was seated looking out a rear window, when he saw his father fire once in the air and then shoot himself in the head.

The officers secured the gun, a thirty-eight calibre special Spanish revolver from Charles Peaduto, a son-in-law, who had picked it up after the shooting. There were two empty shells in it and four that had not been fired off.

According to members of his family, he had the gun for about six months. His health had not been of the best recently and worry over this and the fact that he apparently thought he was getting too old to properly care for his job as bricklayer, which he had frequently mentioned, are believed to be the underlying causes of his attempt on his life.

Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibson and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yingling and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Zeigler, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Leslie, Mr. Hugh Rigby, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dadds.

Yet both my boys are hale and hearty in two days"

"George and Al went out to play football. They came home in the rain, both with a very bad cough. Believe me—I was scared, particularly for Al—he is not very strong. Immediately I put them to bed. Immediately I gave them a dose of Smith Brothers' Cough Syrup."

"Both boys slept fine that night. In two days they were well again—even Al didn't have a trace of a cold."

Mrs. J. McLure, New York City

Smith Brothers' works so efficiently because it has Triple Action which (1) soothes, (2) is mildly laxative, (3) clears air passages.

"Overnight I lost my cough..."

"I've been a seaman for thirty years, but that gale was as bad as anything I can remember. No wonder I got back to my bunk barking like a seal. The ship's steward gave me some Smith Brothers' Cough Syrup. I actually felt better in half an hour, and in the morning I was ready for duty. Three rousing cheers for Smith Brothers!"

Director Of Census Lists Questions To Be Asked Citizens

Thirty-Two Columns Placed On Record Sheets For Use Of Enumerators

Valuation Of Property From Owners And Rental
Value Will Be Sought

For the information of residents of Butler, Beaver and Lawrence Counties which from the Seventh Pennsylvania Census District, Orville Brown, Supervisor, has given out the following information:

Twenty-four possible questions will be asked persons by the enumerators in the 1930 census population, according to the latest announcement on this question by W. M. Stuart, Director of the Census. In addition to the twenty-four specific questions eight other entries are to be made on the population schedule, each sheet of the population schedule thus containing thirty-two columns for possible entry by the enumerator.

Questions Listed

The twenty-four questions briefly stated are as follows:

1. Relationship to head of family, including a statement as to the home-maker in each family.
2. Whether home is owned or rented.
3. Value of home, if owned, or monthly rental, if rented.
4. Radio set?
5. Does this family live on a farm?
6. Sex.
7. Color or race.
8. Age at last birthday.
9. Marital condition.
10. Age at first marriage.
11. Attended school or college any time since September 1, 1929?
12. Whether able to read and write.
13. Place of birth of person.
14. Place of birth of person's father.
15. Place of birth of person's mother.
16. Mother tongue of each foreign-born person.
17. Year of immigration to the United States. (If foreign born).
18. Whether naturalized.
19. Whether able to speak English.
20. Occupation of each gainful worker.
21. Whether employer, employee, or working on own account.
22. Whether actually at work.
24. Whether a veteran of the United States military or naval forces; and for each veteran, in what war or expedition he served.

The other eight entry columns are devoted to such entries as street and number of the family, the number of the dwelling in order of visitation, the number of the family in order of visitation, the name of the party enumerated, etc.

Some Questions New

Certain of the above series of questions never before have been asked by enumerators. The most important of these is probably the question dealing with the value of the home if owned, or in monthly rental if rented. The value of the home if owned is the value that the owner places upon it.

All information given to the enumerator will be strictly confidential and particular pains will be taken to see that the information given by any individual about his home is not in any way made public. That is, it will never be available for tax purposes or to people who are seeking such information from some personal motive. The real intention of the Bureau in ascertaining the value of the homes is that this data will make possible a classification of families according to economic status, or it may be stated, according to buying power. This information is urgently desired by individuals and firms using the Census figures as a basis for organizing their selling and advertising campaigns and will serve many other purposes. The rental value will therefore afford the same classification and serve the same purposes.

No home owner or renter need have any fear about giving a figure as the value of his home or the rent paid. Likewise no purpose will be served in placing a fantastic value on the home or in giving an unreasonably low figure for the same.

Get Data On Radio

Another new feature is part of question one above regarding the home-maker. This applies to women doing housework in their own homes or supervising such work done by servants, and carrying the other responsibilities of the home. This is the first time that women who bear the responsibilities of the home will be given credit for the same.

The question on radio sets will give a direct answer to the question as to how large the potential radio audience is.

Another new question is that which asks for the age at first marriage. The purpose of this is two-fold, first to give definite information as to the real age at marriage of persons in different racial and economic groups and secondly it will make possible a tabulation of important data on the size of families, such tabulation to be based on the number of children reported in the families of women who have been married a stated number of years.

To Give Mother Tongue

The question as to the mother tongue will furnish a better index of the nationality than is sometimes disclosed by the county of birth and will thus further assist in the classification of the foreign born.

Question twenty-three opens the way for the tabulation of an unemployment schedule which is a separate tabulation each enumerator will make in his particular district.

Mr. Brown suggests that the above list of questions be studied by the residents of the Seventh Pennsylvania District and feels that in this way the work of the enumerators can be materially assisted when actual interviews take place in April.

Right Idea

This three year old athlete is the son of Mrs. M. Sarsfield, 5131 Hoopes St., Philadelphia. She says: "Jackie's wonderful condition shows my idea is right."

"Whenever he's the least cross or upset, or has a cold, I give him a little California Fig Syrup. It always brightens him up; regulates his stomach and bowels; gives him a hearty appetite. I have used it with Jackie since he was a year old, and it has never failed to help him promptly."

All children love the rich, fruity flavor of California Fig Syrup. A pure vegetable product, it doesn't gripe or sicken. It always acts gently but thoroughly to cleanse the system of bilious, headachy, constipated children. Doctors say it tones and strengthens weak bowels. Try it with your child. See how bad breath, coated tongue or feverishness disappear! The name California marks the genuine, famous for 50 years. Look for it when buying.

"There is one item of my home treatment which never varies—the preliminary cleansing of the skin with pure soap and water at least twice a day. For this purpose I always recommend Palmolive Soap."

Antoine
5 RUE CAMBON, PARIS

"The vegetable oils of Palmolive Soap leave the skin soft, refreshed, responsive"

says the celebrated ANTOINE of Paris, who symbolizes the height of beauty culture for lovely women of two continents

Olive oil, as combined with palm oil in Palmolive Soap, produces a lather which brings out natural loveliness. It protects the skin... is safe, soothing, delicate.

Retail Price 10c

"SOME clients seem to think," says Antoine of Paris, "that my treatment will give them a beautiful complexion with no more effort on their part than an occasional visit to my salon. 'You compliment me too much, madame,' I say. 'It is necessary for you to do your share between visits to my salon.'"

Antoine continues by stressing the need for soap and water cleanliness... and he prescribes, for this purpose, "just one soap—Palmolive."

"It's delicate yet penetrating lather," he says, "is the most effective means of clearing away every trace of dust and rouge and powder from the tiny pores of the skin."

Beauty specialist to Paris society

Paris society, New York society, the better-known figures in the theatrical world, form Antoine's exclusive clientele. He is one of the most far-famed of all Parisian beauty specialists

When beauty is at stake, accept only expert advice.
18,907 professional experts advise one soap—Palmolive!

with a reputation which extends to both England and America.

Antoine has, of course, experimented with various home beauty methods to determine which would be best. And he is convinced that nothing is so satisfactory as Palmolive.

Pure soap—olive and palm oils

Palmolive is pure. Its color is the natural color of olive and palm oils. It contains no other fats whatever. The natural odor of these oils makes unnecessary the addition of heavy perfumes.

And more than 18,900 beauty experts recognize its special advantages. They find that it cleanses as other soaps can not—that it removes impurities without skin irritation.

You should follow the advice of Antoine of Paris, who numbers among his patrons the world's smartest women.

Massage a lather of Palmolive Soap gently into the pores for two minutes. Then rinse it away with warm water, till you can actually feel the pores being freed of impurities, dirt, make-up. Then rinse with cold water... almost to icy temperature. There! Isn't that refreshing?

"I always recommend Palmolive Soap," says Antoine. And his clients find it ideal for the bath, as well. You will, too.

(International News Service)
MINEOLA, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Bert Acosta, trans-Albany flyer, was sent to jail for a week Saturday by County Judge Lewis J. Smith for failure to support his wife and children. "I'm not going to fool with this thing any longer," Judge Smith explained. "You must do one thing or the other—support your family or go to jail. I remind you to the county jail until next Saturday for sentence."

Acosta told the court that change in plans at Charles Levine's factory resulted in his being without funds. Acosta had expected to obtain employment at Levine's factory.

New Trial Will Be Asked For Pentelio

Man Convicted In Death Of Leesburg District Miner
Wants Another Chance

MERCER, Pa., Feb. 3.—A new trial will be asked for Frank Pentelio, the statement of J. A. Stranahan, Jr., his attorney. Stranahan states that he is now preparing his petition in the case which will be filed at once. If this is done the sentencing of the convicted man to life imprisonment will be deferred until a time when Judge J. A. McLaughry makes decision on the new trial petition.

Stranahan gave Pentelio a wonderful defense, is the opinion here among barristers. Had it not been for his counsel he would have been given the death penalty, is the openly expressed opinion here.

DE FOREST FREED

The action in which William De Forest of Sharon was charged with driving drunk terminated in his acquittal. The court room was crowded all day with Sharon friends. The action in which Loretta De Julia is charged with violation of the liquor law followed in this court with Judge J. A. McLaughry sitting.

QUESTION MAN'S SANITY

Dr. R. M. Hope and Dr. C. L. Howe have been appointed a commission to make examination of the sanity of Myron Bates, held on a liquor charge. With Arthur Howe, Bates is indicted for transporting liquor. Bates was captured three months ago by policemen who allege that he is one of the big time bootleggers of the county. His home is in Greenville.

WEATHER WAS COLD

C. B. Buckham, who owns the Mill-creek Lunch Room, reports the weather of January 26 the coldest, with one exception in his knowledge.

The thermometer at his room on Wilson avenue was 18 below. He remembers one time when it was 26 below. As he has made Mercer his home for the last 25 years he is an authority on weather conditions.

TO TEST CATTLE

The tuberculosis test of cattle which will take place here this spring in Mercer county will be the third of a triennial nature.

Mercer was the first county in the state in 1923 to have a county wide test of all animals. There were 37,000 animals tested then. This spring there will be 40,000 tested.

The work was done then by state and federal veterinarians. The same agencies will have charge of the test of this year. Since the county wide test here in 1923 three-fourths of the 67 counties in the state have been subjected to the same treatment.

PLAN GRANGE PROGRAM

A varied and interesting program has been arranged by the officers of the Pomona grange of Mercer county for the February meeting that will be held at the Friendship grange hall on February 6.

The hall is located on the route between Greenville and Jamestown.

ARREST DOG OWNERS

Agent Harry Higbee of the bureau of animal husbandry reports the non-licensing of a number of dogs owned by Pine and Liberty township farmers.

The agent states that he has already made 30 arrests in these two townships of dog owners who have failed, despite repeated warnings, to secure their licenses. The owner is fined and the dog either licensed or shot under the law.

Higbee states that this is just his start on a county wide investigation of the status of dogs.

TAX COLLECTORS SETTLE

To date but four of the 48 tax collectors in the county have made settlement with the county commissioners of their 1929 tax accounts.

The following week will be the deadline for the remaining 44. Tax exonerations for the year will be made during this period of time. All the county collectors are expected to call during the week.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Word 'Ought' Is Naughty For Parents

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.
"You ought to keep your shoulders up, Marie."

Marie had doubtless heard this admonition many times before. She may have let it pass by unnoticed or she may have been annoyed by it. One thing is almost certain; this advice will not help Marie improve her posture.

Suppose you say to your lad of four, "You ought to clean the mud off your shoes more carefully" as he enters the door and, pretty true to form, the lad goes on as if nothing had been said. Perhaps you had not intended to make him clean his shoes again this time. You were merely thinking aloud. Or you made this remark to the lad with the hope that he would feel the "ought" enough to go back to clean those shoes properly. Then if he didn't you found yourself somewhat annoyed at his failure to warm up to your appeal, and then there you gave the lad a lecture on the importance of cleanliness or even of obedience.

But the dirty shoes were not carried back. You were annoyed and the child was annoyed. But nothing came out of it but a weakening of his will and yours, a growing mutual disrespect between you and the child, and a smaller likelihood that in the future the child would respond to "ought."

You should have done your thinking silently. Once you were sure that the lad's shoes were not clean enough to enter the house, you should have clearly told him so, and have sent him back at once to measure up to the requirements. The word "ought" was out of place.

"You should have your hair cut,"

Dan is told on his way to church when there is no opportunity for a visit to the barber.

How frequently we parents say to each other and to our children "You ought to" concerning something that they could not possibly do at the time, something likely to be forgotten when the opportunity arises, or something we really know they will not do.

We want the child to acquire a sense of duty and to feel the power of ought. We want him to do certain things that he will do them. But every time he feels he ought to do the necessary urge to do as he feels, he weakens his sensitivity to "ought." He becomes a weaker character. Every time we say "ought" to him without affording the necessary urge for him to respond favorably to the "ought" we have weakened his will.

We say "ought" too often and too carelessly. We do damage by this word. By it we annoy and curse our children. It is about the naughtiest word that we can use.

Tell the child he ought to do something which he does not do and you make him less ready next time to cooperate.

Make the child feel he ought, but don't tell him he ought. Don't even put too much trust in the sense of duty. Teach the child to do many things long before he is aware of "ought" or "ought not." Let him learn happily to do many things that are right before he knows they are right. You then help him build a useful sense of ought.

Tomorrow: The Superiority Complex.

Grove Street Garage Is Scene Of Robbery

Actual Theft Is Not Discovered For Several Hours By The Owner

Detective C. G. Logan and Officer Lynch were called to the Grove street garage and repair shop of Dick Atwell Saturday morning, to investigate an indicated robbery.

On visiting the garage, the officers found that the place had been entered by breaking in the rear of the place. Apparently nothing of value had been taken.

Saturday evening, Detective John Young and Officer M. J. Young were called to the place by the owner, who informed them that a radiator of a Graham Truck had been stolen from the place at the time of the previous entrance, the loss being discovered by a check up of stock and materials. It is valued at $40.

Police are investigating a number of clues.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—So long as women continue to read department store ads in the newspapers, you'll find more men immersed in the financial pages.

"JACK SPRATT"
A book reviewer in whose judgment I once had faith, told me if I wanted to read a good book to get "Jack Spratt," by Isabel Campbell.

Did you ever paw through a series of lop-sided kodak snapshots pasted up in a moth-eaten, red plush album? That's "Jack Spratt."

The book deals with a hard-working housewife of the early nineties whose husband is a small time "cheater." She has two shallow Dotters for whom she sews and washes and irons and scrubs and cooks and darts and pinches pennies. The elder one enters the marital state with a tight-wad, and the old lady gets a stroke and cashes in when she learns that the younger one has elected to become an unmarried mother.

It's as cheerful as the creak of a crippled baby's leg-brace on a Christmas morning.

Is it true that the government will call in all the Indian head one-cent pieces and pay more than one cent apiece for them?

No government coin nor paper money issue has been called in, nor is any such call contemplated. The government pays no premium in any event but only its face value.

Even though a coin may have a curiosity value (which is not the case with ordinary Indian head one-cent pieces) it can only be obtained from a dealer or collector.

Patrick W. Carey Dies Early Sunday

Master Mechanic At Tin Mill Passes Away After Illness

CAME TO NEW CASTLE MILL 22 YEARS AGO

Patrick W. Carey, aged 57, of 490 Neshaunock avenue, one of the best known and most highly respected employees of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company in this city, having been master mechanic of the New Castle Works for many years, died Sunday morning at 3 o'clock in New Castle hospital, as a result of complications that followed an operation. He had been in a serious condition for several weeks.

His death comes as a distinct shock to hundreds of people in this city, who counted him among their personal friends and especially among his fellow workmen in the New Castle Works of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company, where he was master mechanic. He had been at the New Castle Works since 1908, when he came here from the Mercer Works at Farrell.

At the time of his death, Mr. Carey had been in the employ of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company for approximately thirty-one years, having been first employed in the service of that company at Muncie, Indiana on February 15, 1899.

He remained at the Muncie plant until 1903, when he went to McKeesport, where he remained until 1904, going from there to a Pittsburgh plant of the company, where he was employed from 1904 to 1907. He then went to Farrell from which place he came in 1908 to the New Castle Works, where he has remained ever since. Mr. Carey ranked high in the esteem of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company as a master mechanic.

Mr. Carey was born March 29, 1873, at Muncie, Indiana, the son of Thomas and Johanna Trant Carey. He was a member of St. Mary's Parish, also of New Castle Lodge No. 69, B. P. O. E., New Castle Aerie No. 455, Fraternal Order of Eagles and New Castle Lodge No. 51, Loyal Order of Moose.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna M. Carey, the following children, Thomas J. Dugan, William P. Dugan, Helen Dugan, and Mrs. Victor Goussy, all of this city, and one sister, Miss Ellen T. Carey, also of this city.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning, Feb. 5, 1930, at 10 a. m., in St. Mary's church. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Just Take Your Choice On This Groundhog Yarn

(International News Service)

"Treason!" "Skulduggery!" "Impostors!"

Throughout the nation, in the realm over which is wielded the scepter of Sir Michael De Arctomys Monax, that gray and bewhiskered savant of things meteorological, epithets and opprobrium were heaped on the illustrious loyal subjects of the lowly groundhog.

For, look ye and look ye well—charges have arisen that charlatanism, trickery and downright chicanery were abroad; that treason has spread its sinister tentacles in groundhog circles throughout Pennsylvania, time-hallowed haunts of Sir Michael.

Prognosticators are all awry and reason topples on its throne. What is one to believe?

At Punxsutawney, a lineal descendant of Sir Michael poked an inquisitive nose through his hole, squinted at the skies, squinted at his shadow, and ducked back into his den. Over his shoulder, floated his dictum: "Six more weeks of winter!"

"But prithee, Sir Michael," cried the anxious waiters who had waited with the patience of those who wait, "what of your brethren at Quarryville? They have joyfully proclaimed to their subjects that Lady De Arctomys Monax, and all the little Monaxes, shall prepare to set out and see the world—that King Winter's rule is at an end; that flowers soon will blossom, trees bud into bloom and grass turn green! They say spring is just around the corner."

"Hoighty toighty for Quarryville," came back Sir Michael's sarcastic and slightly muffled retort from the recesses of his den. "Here I leave my oath in the middle of winter to satisfy the curiosity of human pests who want to know whether to take off or leave on the old red flannels and you—ye tell me about Quarryville! Bah! impostors—that's what they are. I've impugners—that's what they are. I've been a prophesying this now weather for a million years. Anyway, I'm going back to sleep. Wake me up April 1."

And at Quarryville, the slumbering groundhog lodge met in nearby fields and members are ready to stake their oaths that Sir and Mrs. Michael scampered gaily about, unencumbered by shadows, presaging the approach of an early spring.

To make matters worse, Philadelphia reported that the rotund denizen who inhabits groundhog castle, a hole in the earth near Thirty-fourth street and Girard avenue, was so torpid with sleep that he didn't even come forth to look for his shadow. Which means that spring is near or that the groundhog was lazy.

You pays your money and you takes your choice.

Lawrence County Is Nineteenth In Industrial Output

Industrial products valued at $124,766,390 were manufactured in Lawrence county during 1928, according to figures made public today by Secretary of Internal Affairs James F. Woodward. This figure placed the county 19th in the standing according to the values of industrial output.

There were 20 counties in all whose industrial products were valued at over one hundred million dollars, while two counties passed the one billion, five hundred million dollar mark.

Of the surrounding counties, Beaver county ranked third in the state, while Mercer county was 15th. Venango county was 25th and Butler county was 28th.

Annually the Pennsylvania Department of Internal Affairs collects industrial figures from all the producing plants in the state and when final figures are reached comparisons of the various counties are possible.

Secretary Woodward pointed out that Philadelphia county in 1928 continued to lead the other counties in Pennsylvania in production valuation with $1,690,734,900. Allegheny county again stood second on the list with $1,525,706,000, while Beaver county ranked third in the state with $268,856,000. Fourth position was occupied in 1928 by Luzerne county with a production valuation of $261,898,200. In 1927 Luzerne county stood third in the state, while Beaver county ranked fourth in that year.

Woman Hotel Owner May Be Witness In Big Oklahoma Trial

Woman Who Has Attempted To "Clean Up" Oil Fields Expected As Witness

(International News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 3.—Behind the startling and sordid record built up by government witnesses in the federal court hearing on the liquor conspiracy indictment against 102 present and former officials of Pottawatomie county, and alleged distillers and joint keepers in the Seminole oil field, is the story of an undaunted woman.

Mrs. Ethel Rennert, builder and owner of the Rennert Hotel at Earlsboro, may or may not be called to the stand—she is under subpoena—but public records indicate that the trial which entered its fifth day here today might fittingly be called the climax of her single handed battle to clean up the oil boom towns.

A woman of considerable wealth,

Mrs. Rennert surprised the oil field first by living there; second by building an extensively furnished three-story hotel with a bath in every room, and finally by announcing that booze and women were "out."

Testifying in the impeachment trial of Henry S. Johnston, former governor, a year ago, she described how she had repeatedly called on the executive with detailed reports on vice conditions in the oil fields of the state. She modestly took credit for two state investigations, each of which precipitated resignations of oil field town officials but little more.

the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness, and general debility. That this is not merely an idle statement is shown by a great mass of evidence, including signed statements of many people of this locality. Learn more about Ten Herbs by calling at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where this famous preparation with the ten wonderful natural ingredients is being introduced.

"I have recommended Ten Herbs to my friends because of the way it relieved my health troubles," was the recent statement of Mr. Alex McKendry, 73 years of age, 1222 Fourth Avenue, Coraopolis, Pa. (near Pittsburgh). "Although I had suffered from various ailments for seven years, to my great surprise, I had not finished the first bottle when I noticed a change for the better in my condition, and before long I really felt like a different person."

"My stomach was badly disordered. Food did not digest as it should, but would sour and fill me with gas. My heart palpitated so badly that I could hardly get my breath after walking upstairs. My kidneys were out of order. I had to get up seven or eight times during the night, and when I got up in the morning I felt stiff and had terrible pains across the back. Nervousness kept me from getting sufficient sleep. My liver was inactive, and at times I had severe dizzy spells. If I stopped over, I could hardly straighten up. Constipation also gave me considerable trouble."

"After taking Ten Herbs awhile, my appetite improved, and I was not bothered with gas, bloating, or shortness of breath as formerly. My liver and kidneys began to work properly, and my bowels were regulated. I became free of pains, stiffness, and dizzy spells. Night-rising was relieved. My sleep was sound, as my nerves were quiet. I advise anyone who is troubled as I was to give Ten Herbs a trial."

Ten Herbs is being introduced at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington St., this city, and is sold at all drug and medicine stores throughout this entire section.

Communication With Crippled Submarine May Be Made Possible

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Experiments are being conducted at the navy yard with a device to permit persons on a rescuing vessel to communicate with men trapped in a crippled submarine at the bottom of the ocean. The tests have not yet been completed. Capt. Willis McDowell, chief engineer of the yard said they have progressed far enough to indicate the device is practicable.

The device may be used as a radio or with wires, and will displace the tapping system used by the trapped crew of the ill-fated S-4. By the use of an electro-magnet, it will adhere to the hull of the undersea craft, and words spoken from within the hull or from the surface vessel, will be audible. A switch on the surface craft will make it possible to turn the transmitter into a receiver, so as to effect this two way communication.

Congressman J. Howard Swick, who spent the week end at his home in Beaver Falls, left last evening for Washington, where he was scheduled to meet President Hoover at 10:30 this morning to confer on the proposed pension measure which Congressman Swick has introduced into the House.

This was Congressman Swick's first meeting with the chief executive. President Hoover and Congressman Swick went over matters pertaining to World War veteran's legislation, with an idea of getting the service pension for all World War veterans.

The Swick measure, as introduced in the house, would place all World War veterans on a parity with veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American wars.

ON WITH THE DANCE A True Story of the Younger Set

THE Friday evening dancing party was the week's high spot for the young folks of a certain small country club. A four-piece orchestra always supplied the rhythm until older members conceived the idea that mechanical music would serve the youngsters just as well—and cost less.

Accordingly, a music machine was installed. The plan worked once, but the next Friday the little band triumphantly returned to the job.

"What's wrong with your new music box?" a father asked. "Wouldn't you rather dance to Whiteman and Vallee records than to a tin-pan band?"

WINNING TEAMS HERE ARE PICKED

Two teams have been chosen from the New Castle sub-district to compete in the annual first aid contest which will be held in the Elks club on Thursday evening, February 13th, at 7:30.

The winning teams from New Castle, chosen from six competing teams are as follows: Maintenance team captained by R. H. Alexander, J. A. Tieche, W. R. McBride, K. L. Lockhart, and W. D. McCown; Cable team, captained by W. G. Boyd; C. A. Claple, L. W. Hill, K. J. Johnson, and H. P. Lightner.

Six teams in all were entered in the elimination contest here, which was conducted Thursday. These consisted of two teams from the construction department, one from the cable department, and three from the maintenance department.

The judges were: F. E. Stutzberry, W. E. Peters, G. R. Weber, J. R. Criss, J. G. Gates, and J. H. Templeton.

The six teams which will compete, include the two from New Castle, two from the Rochester district, captained by J. H. Porter and F. E. Mowry; and two from the Sharon district, captained by R. F. Dixon and G. Means. The teams are rated on a percentage basis, and in the semi-final contest, the team captained by J. H. Porter of Beaver Falls led with 99.5 per cent; Dixon's team from Sharon stood second with 99.4 per cent, while the New Castle teams were further down in the list. If they are to emerge as district winners, they must overcome some stiff competition, as the boys from the Rochester and Sharon sub-districts, proved they are right on their toes.

The contests here are under the direction of C. A. Bolen, District Plant Superintendent.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—The strike of taxi-cab drivers continued here today, going into its fourth week with no signs of either the drivers nor the parmelite transportation, proprietors of the Yellow and the Green Cab companies, ready to give in to the other.

Today cabs, drivers and guards are being searched by police for firearms, in order to prevent an occurrence of Saturday when a driver was shot in the foot by the accidental discharge of a gun carried by a deputy sheriff. Two or three more stonings and beatings of drivers were reported yesterday with one cab driver reporting that he was lured to an ambush by a girl who entered his cab and asked to be driven to the North Side. She disappeared when he opened the door, he said, and then he was attacked by a gang of men and his car wrecked when it crashed into a water plug.

Coal Police Will Take Conviction To Higher Courts

Counsel For Coal Police Found Guilty In Venango County
Will File Appeals

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—Attorneys for Walter J. Lyster and Harold P. Watts, former coal and iron police who were convicted of involuntary manslaughter by a Venango county jury last Saturday in the death of John Borkowski, Tyre-Miner-Farmer, are preparing to carry the fight for their clients to the highest courts in the land, it was indicated here today.

Frank Slapikas, the third of the trio accused of having beaten Borkowski so severely the night of February 9, last, that he died the next day, was acquitted by the same court which found his former fellow officers guilty. The trio were acquitted here in criminal court last September of a charge of murder in the same case.

As soon as the jury of four women and eight men returned their verdict last Saturday, defense attorneys Edward G. Coll and Charles B. Pritchard filed a motion for a new trial and an arrest of judgment, basing their action on a legal technicality involving the double jeopardy of the defendants.

Arguments of the motion will be heard within 10 days, according to the ruling of the trial judge, William M. Parker, of Venango county. The second trial went to Franklin on the order of the supreme court granting the defendants a change in venue on the plea of their attorneys that popular prejudice in Allegheny county precluded a fair trial for the defendants.

Returns To School After Long Illness

Today was a "red letter" day in the life of Gene Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fox of Garfield avenue, as it marked his return to school after an illness of 11 months. Gene was taken ill almost a year ago, recovering during the summer, but he suffered a relapse last fall, which prevented his return to school when sessions were resumed for the other boys and girls. He was able to start in again this morning when the second semester opened.

Princess lines are sponsored for separate coats of formal type for spring.

What Your Community Chest Is Doing

A TYPICAL CASE
Some idea of the work which is being done each day by boxes of the Community Chest may be gleaned from the following story, related by Miss Della Glenn, secretary of the Associated Charities.

One day several weeks ago the teachers of one of the schools in the city noticed that children of a certain family, who lived about a mile from the school building, were going home for their lunch instead of eating with the rest of the children in the building.

After the event had occurred several days in succession she called the pupil aside and asked her the reason. She was told that the family had nothing but dry bread to eat, and her mother would not let them take their lunch to school.

The matter was referred to the Associated Charities and an investigation revealed the facts in the case to be as the child had stated.

There was a large family and the father had not been able to work for several months. Their plight was becoming desperate. Their clothes were wearing out and they had spent their last money for a sack of flour, from which the mother had baked a number of loaves of bread. That was all they had in the house to eat.

Provisions were provided for the family and the children were given warm clothing to augment what they already had. Milk was furnished for the children through the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society, and the school officials were instructed to provide them with milk for their lunches.

The children are now enabled to eat their lunches with the other pupils instead of walking another two miles at the noon hour with no more nourishment to sustain them than a few pieces of bread.

This is but one of a great number of similar cases which are brought to the attention of the charitable organizations each month. In all such cases the facts are investigated and where aid is needed it is furnished the needy family by the agency.

Often times the need is so great that the agencies are unable to stand all of the expense of providing the necessities of life. In such cases the county is asked to help.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HISTORY

The Story Of The Boxer Rebellion
The Peking Relief Expedition

BY THE LATTER PART OF JULY, 1900, A FORMIDABLE INTERNATIONAL FORCE HAD GATHERED AT TIENTSIN TO MARCH TO THE RESCUE OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS AND RESIDENTS BESIEGED BY THE BOXERS IN THE LEGATIONS AT PEKING.

IT WAS AS PICTURESQUE AN ARMY AS EVER HAD BEEN ASSEMBLED. IT NUMBERED 20,000 MEN AND INCLUDED AMERICANS, BRITISH, JAPANESE, BEARDED, TURBANED SIKHS FROM INDIA, RUSSIANS, AUSTRIANS AND ITALIANS.

AT THAT TIME THERE WAS A LARGE AMERICAN ARMY CATERED IN THE PHILIPPINES TO FIGHT THE INSURGENT AGUINALDO, AND A STRONG BODY OF OUR TROOPS WAS SENT FROM THERE TO HELP SUBDUCE THE BOXERS.

AUGUST 4TH THE RELIEF EXPEDITION BEGAN ITS MEMORABLE MARCH TO PEKING. HORDES OF BOXERS AND CHINESE TROOPS BARRED THE WAY. THE BOXERS WERE NO MATCH AS SOLDIERS FOR THE ALLIED TROOPS, BUT THEIR GREAT SUPERIORITY IN NUMBERS MADE THE INTERNATIONAL ADVANCE SLOW AND DIFFICULT. TOMORROW—FIGHTING BEFORE WALLS OF PEKING.

Bethany Bison Herd In New Wilmington To Battle "Titans"

Westminster Floor Team Will Try And Get Back Victory From Clever Bethanyites

Titans Can Stay Up Near Top Of Tri-State Conference By Good Showing

By "BUGS" WALTHER

The Bisons of Bethany are invading New Wilmington tonight. Whether or not they will be allowed to run wild depends on five stalwart Westminster floormen. Coach Johnny Lawther has instructed his men of color to battle to the finish. The game starts at 8:15 o'clock.

Down in their own backwash a week ago, the Bethany boys became wild and tore things up in rather hard fashion, and when the proceedings and damage had been accounted, it was found that Westminster was short ten points. The score at Bethany was 31 to 21.

If the Titans are to continue to rule the Tri-State conference, and they harbor this secret ambition, they must hand the Bisons some poisonous stuff tonight in the way of inflated leather, and furthermore they must knock the ball or rattle the net not once but many many times.

Race All Bemuddled

This Tri-State championship race is all bemuddled, with this and that, Duquesne University a few weeks ago up and smacked the kankankerous Bison by one-point, not much to crow about, but they crow a lot at Duquesne, they are not over-laiden with modesty anyhow. Westminster beat Thiel and Geneva, Geneva beat Thiel, etc. Just how does the standing read, is it perpendicular or horizontal. Don't ask.

Well anyway, if nothing else happens, the Westminsterites are anxiously waiting for tonight to come. They have a little private matter to settle with the Bethany boys, but seeing as how the invaders from the hills of West Virginia are adverse to secret sessions, the issue will be thrashed out before some 1,000 or so basketball patrons, and in the full view of all those who can crowd into the spacious gym.

Lot Of New Seats

Andy McDonald has gone and placed a lot of nice new seats around the gym floor and invites the customers to try them out, they are pine I believe. "Pine for You" will probably be the theme song tonight.

Captain "Babe" O'Donovan and company, mending several other good basketball toppers, namely Kecheran, Delahunty, Crowell, Browne, Rice, Fisher, Hamas, Blanner, Considine, etc., will be out there this evening with set visages. If they fail to give you a tumble at the usual "hello there Del" greeting don't become alarmed, they perhaps are thinking of the basketball game.

The basketball team that sticks over two victories on this good old Westminster team is going to know they have been places and seen things, and while it isn't a bit nice to be saying this, the writer earnestly believes that all things being free and equal that the Titans will have set back an old crowd of Bisons when the accounting tonight has been accounted. I'll be see'n' you.

Amateur Floor Notes

The Sacred Hearts were defeated by the South Side Midgits 37 to 29 in a game played at the Carnegie auditorium on Saturday. The playing of J. Venditto, F. Cavelli, Thomas and Perchovich featured.

The "Y" Pioneer Bible class team took a tough one to the Harmony Kings Saturday at the "Y" floor, by a score of 7 to 6.

The last stepping Hauser basketball team handed the Wampus Boy Scouts a defeat 26 to 23, with Davis, Seyer and Stone the stars for the victors, and Kaplan the best for Wampus. The Hauser team would like to book games with all teams ranging in age from 15 to 17 years. For games call 9189 and ask for Hauser.

The Young Yankees downed the Crystal Five Saturday morning at the Senior High floor, the score was 13 to 10. The game was close in every period. The work of Mitchell and Nijic was the best for the Crystal Five, while the playing of Bosco and Seyer and Stone the stars for the Yankees. The winners had a defense working that was well nigh impregnable.

Tri-State Race Is All Tied Up

Four Teams Tied For Lead In Tri-State Conference Floor Race

By "BUGS"

Maybe they will give two cups this year for the winners of the Tri-State Conference basketball championship. Right now it looks as if there likely be several teams with title claims.

Four teams, Westminster, Bethany, Duquesne and Geneva are tied for the lead. The Titans are battling Bethany tonight at New Wilmington and may win the session, and if they do then the lead will be their's temporarily at least.

Friday night the Westminster boys will get another test when they tangle with Geneva down in that new handsome Daves Memorial gym at New Brighton. If the Lawthermen can win two games this week, they will have a toe-hold on the top rung.

Dukes Given Setback

Bethany socked Duquesne for a 44 to 30 count Saturday night at Bethany to gain a place in the run. The Dukes had previously edged out a one-point win at Pittsburgh, then Bethany beat the Westminster boys. Westminster has taken Thiel twice, and Geneva, and have been defeated by Bethany.

Don't be misled into believing that these Tri-State teams are not "hot" this year, they are that way.

The teams are now going down the home stretch and some good games are on tap in the next few weeks. It's basketball if you see it in the Tri-State district. Pitt and some of the other class A schools have given the Tri-State boys the runaround for several years, they will have none of them. That's all.

Grove City To Play Waynesburg Tuesday Night

Highly Touted Waynesburg Team Meets Crimson Passers Tuesday

GROVE CITY, Pa., Feb. 3.—Coach Thorn's Grovers will complete the first half of the schedule here Tuesday night by entertaining the Waynesburg passers. The Yellow Jackets are viewed with a wary eye by the Crimson mentor, as they have given trouble to every team in the district, and the Crimson club is in for another hard game.

The Grove City schedule this year has been unusually difficult, especially with an inexperienced squad. Three defeats, including an unexpected upset by Thiel, marred the record of eight games played to date. Ten games remain, and every one is a difficult assignment.

Waynesburg's 12-point victory over West Virginia Wesleyan indicates the calibre of the Yellow Jackets. Spectacular shooting by Stavitsky, when he caged seven field goals in rapid succession, allowed the Grovers to run up a 39-22 score against the West Virginians. The comparison apparently favors Grove City to win over Waynesburg by a small margin, but Coach Thorn is far from counting the struggle in the win column.

Grove City's new players looked particularly impressive in the Wesleyan game last week. Held to a close score at the half, the Grovers' defense every man played his position as it should be played and held Enon to one lone field goal which came late in the fourth quarter. Grandy that boy who spends his time in back court was a pleasing sight to any coach as he broke up play after play lone handed.

Basketball Games

In one of the hardest battles ever fought on a high school court the Plaingrove girls' sextet bowed to the fast Enon Valley club. Trailing 13-9 at half time the Plain Grove team came back to lock the score at 14-9. From this point on it was any teams game until with 15 seconds to play, C. Trudel dropped in the winning corner for Enon.

Line-up: Enon V. H. S.—23 McKissick ..... G. .... Nicely Patterson ..... G. .... Prescott Jenkins ..... SC ..... Dugan Hohmann ..... C ..... R. Trudel Brennenman ..... F ..... E. Trudel Rodgers ..... F ..... McCowen

Two Recruits For Coach John Lawther

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 3.—As a result of second semester enrollment, two more players have been added to Coach John Lawther's Westminster basketball squad. These men are "Whitney" Siljander, former Pittsburgh Shenley high school star forward, and "Bill" Williams, former Sharon high player.

Williams To Meet Maroon

Flashy Featherweight Battle Scheduled Here Next Monday Night

Stanley Williams, Wheeling, W. Va., and Tommy Maroon, Philadelphia, featherweights, have been matched for the 10-round main bout next Monday evening at the Jolly bowl, it was announced today.

Williams is the rugged Welsh-American who Saturday night defeated Babe Ruth at the Municipal and Maroon, Italian-American, cleaned up all opponents around Kansas City before moving east to Philadelphia.

Battling Gizzy and other featherweights of the tri-state district have tried to beat Williams and have failed and as Maroon is challenging Battling Battalino, featherweight champion, he was secured to oppose Williams here.

It is possible that two old favorites, Red Jadaberg and George Perotta, 165 pounders, may meet in the semi-final but up to noon the match had not been finally made.

There will be two other six-round bouts and the bouts, on paper, look to be some of the best that have been arranged for the bowl.

The Carnegie Midgits defeated the Solito street team by a score of 27 to 15, in a game played at the Carnegie auditorium. The playing of Campbell and Sheldone featured for the winners, with Deep and Ampdie the best for the losers. Recently the Midgits also beat the Eagles by a score of 25 to 20. To date the Carnegie Midgits have won 30 games and have only been beaten once.

Washington Opposes Local Five Tuesday

Washington Expects To Give Local Passers Hard Tussle On Tuesday

New Castle Hopes To Win Eleventh Straight Contest; Section Three Cinched

By CHARLES LANDOLF

On Tuesday night in the senior high school gymnasium the New Castle high passers will oppose Coach Hank Day's Washington High quintet in the eleventh game of the season. The game will start promptly at 8:15. New Castle defeated Washington in the first engagement. Since then the Washington team has been going like a house on fire. This game has no bearing on the W. P. I. A. L. but will put the locals in a trim for a game Friday night with Zelenople high.

Washington has shown marked improvement for the past few weeks and is threatening Section 15 of the W. P. I. A. L. On Friday night they came through with an unexpected victory over the strong Clayville High cagers by a 31-24 count. Washington is coming here with the idea of stopping the local cohorts. The locals have practically cinched the sectional laurels as a result of Evans City's defeat at the hands of the Ellwood City crew.

Coach Bredenbaugh is sending his passers through drills for the game tomorrow night. Washington is bringing a fast team to New Castle. The game will be the eleventh of the season for the locals who have been victorious in all of their engagements.

RITTICISMS

Judge Emil Fuchs of the Boston Very Braves suggests the hockey penalty box be applied to baseball. O. K. if the box has a nice strong lid, Judge.

Maybe the judge doesn't like to pay a player a full day's salary and see him spend the last eight innings under a shower. Hot water costs money, too.

The irate player starts to scream; They put him in a box. It does not hurt or help his team. Because they wear Red Sox!

What we want to know is if a ball players gets mad enough who's going to PUT him in that box?

At that, we're beginning to like the idea. It would be great fun to see the bleacher boys tossing peanuts to the prisoners.

Of course, there'll have to be a keeper for the box. Anybody with experience managing a zoo will do.

The judge says the penalty should last only a couple of innings. You're spoiling things, Judge. A guy couldn't get tired much less enjoy a snooze in that time.

Risko Refuses To Meet Geo Hoffman

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—There will be boxing card at Madison Square Garden this week, because Johnny Risko declined to box George Hoffman, it was announced today. Risko had signed to meet Vic Campolo and when Hoffman was substituted he declined the match.

Iowa Reinstated To Good Standing

Big Ten Relents And Asks Iowa To Again Join In Big Ten Competition

(International News Service)
IOWA CITY, Ia., Feb. 3.—An undecurrent of dissatisfaction was evinced on the University of Iowa campus today even though the Western Conference has elected to restore the Hawkeye school to full conference standing.

At first the student body and athletic officials were jubilant when the news reached them that Iowa had been restored Saturday following its final banishment in December. Saturday's meeting was held in Chicago.

Jubilant turned to resentment, however, when it was learned later that the faculty committee refused to permit the reinstatement of eleven athletes who were declared ineligible for further intercollegiate competition because of alleged benefits derived from the Belting loan fund.

Peace Without Victory

The decision to restore Iowa was reached at a special secret meeting after four hours and twenty five minutes of discussion.

The Daily Iowan, student newspaper, characterized the committee's action as "a peace without victory."

The barred athletes characterized the conference refusal to consider a reinstatement plea as "unjust." They denied, however, that they plan to leave school.

It has not been determined yet whether Iowa is to participate in conference track, swimming and wrestling championships this year. It is certain, however, that the Hawkeye school will not participate in Big Ten Football as the 1930 schedules have been drawn up with Iowa a non-participant.

Joey Goodman Fights Mandell

Jimmy Dunn's Lightweight Gets Chance At Champ Tonight

Joey Goodman, formerly of Norfolk, Va., now of Cleveland, battles Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion of the world, tonight in a 12-round bout at Cleveland and 50 fans of New Castle have made arrangements to be present and root for Goodman.

Should Goodman, by any chance, score a knockout he would not be recognized as champion, but the result would go a long way toward bringing him a championship bout.

According to the terms for the battle tonight Goodman must weigh over 135 and less than 138 pounds which protects Mandell, who is one of the clearest, titleholders the lightweight class has known.

Joey took the fight through Jimmy Dunn, his manager, who figures he has nothing to lose and everything to gain.

Goodman fought his first northern bout at Jolly bowl and a year ago was only a preliminary boy.

Bolero costumes are being featured for spring.

TITANS SWAMP LUTHERANS IN GAME SATURDAY NIGHT

BOY'S LEAGUE

Five games were played Saturday afternoon in the Boy's League at the Y. M. C. A. floor.

The Red Birds beat the Laurels 24 to 19. Grommies, Hiles and Eakin featured, as did Caven. The Fire Flies whopped the Fred Rentz News Boys 41 to 7, with George, Kaplan and Herbold the high scorers. The B. V. D. team defeated the Smoothies 25 to 16, in a well played game, with Mackey and H. Lockley the big stars for the winners, and Uram and Clausner the best for the Smoothies. The Eagles handed the Imperials a setback 22 to 10, with Deep, Dwyer and Davies the stars. The Hi-Y boys beat the Castles 18 to 6, with J. Uram, Claus and Hodge the shining lights.

STARS OF YESTERDAY

Base stealing, to hear some speak of it, has become a lost art. The truth is that it was a lost art long before Babe Ruth and his buddies began to make the apple for distances, far and high.

Ty Cobb is looked upon as the greatest base hand of all time and maybe he is, but his best mark, 96, doesn't compare with what some of the lads did before the turn of the century.

Back in 1888—that's pretty long ago—Harry Stovey, of the old Philadelphia American association outfit, stole exactly 156 sacks. That's close to double Cobb's mark for a season. In 1890 Stovey rifled the sack 136 times, but this time as a member of the Boston Players' league club.

He was either the greatest bag thief of all time or catchers were mighty slow in those days. The latter contention cannot be true since some of the best mackmen baseball has ever had flourished during Stovey's time.

In the season of 1891, a new baseball made his appearance in the person of Billy Hamilton, of the Philadelphia Nationals. Billy stole 102 bags. The following year Speedy Brown, of the Boston American association, stole 110 sacks.

The last "century" base stealers was Bill Lange, of the Chicago Nationals. Bill stole an even 100 bits of canvas during the 1896 season.

Since that day no base thief has ever approached these remarkable records. That it, none but Ty Cobb, who fell just four short of a century with his 96 for 1915, Cobb was the fastest man of his time and his peer has not since put in an appearance. Yes, base stealing is a lost art, but it was lost a long, long time ago, probably before most present day sport page readers were born.

Polish Falcons To Open Floor Season

West Pittsburgh Team To Oppose Polish Falcons In Opening Game

The Polish Falcons are a little late getting started, but they promise to make things interesting for the other semi-pro basketball teams in this district. Tomorrow night at the newly renovated and modern Falcon Hall, the Polish boys are tackling the Frank's Billiards of West Pittsburgh. The Polish Falcons Juniors meet the Lawrence Five in the prelin game starting at 7:15 o'clock.

For the past two weeks Coach Volosko has been busy giving the Falcons a few fine points of the game, and hopes to have them in first class shape for the tilt Tuesday evening. Several strenuous practice sessions have been indulged in. The Falcons have added a few new players. This team in the persons of "Midge" Kwiat, Adam Kwiat, Joe Mehalie and others and hope to win a lot of basketball games.

"Midge" Kwiat the tall center from East Brook high has been good in the rehearsals and big things are expected of him this year. The following veterans compose the team this year: Andy Mehalie, M. Kolodziejski, "Panas" Ceselka, Felix Zuchowski, Joe Frankovich, Walter Dudek, Johnson, A. Paczynski and several others.

Reading Gets Rookie Hurler

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., Feb. 3.—The Reading club of the International Baseball League has announced infielder Clayton Madison, former New York University captain and star, had been sent to the Decatur Three-I club in exchange for Pitcher Dewey C. Hinkle, a southpaw who won 19 of 26 games he pitched last year.

Crowell And O'Donovan Leading Scorers As Lawthermen Have Romp

(Special To The News)
GREENVILLE, Pa. Feb. 3.—Coach John Lawther's Westminster College Titans do not believe in signs, for despite the fact that a placard in the Thiel College gymnasium here states that a Lutheran team cannot be defeated twice in the same year, the Titans sent the Benson-coached team down to its second defeat by a 44-16 score Saturday night. Earlier in the year Thiel was defeated by a 34-4 score at New Wilmington.

Primed for the Lutherans because of the fact that Grove City was defeated here last week and other teams were forced to the limit to win, the Westminster team started with the initial tip-off and ran up enough points to make Coach Benson about as happy as a toothless guest at a peanut brittle party. At half time the score stood 21-7, and the Lutheran had made one field goal in the first period.

Westminster started fast and took but eight shots at the basket in the first 12 minutes of play to score eight field goals, which is a fairly good average in any league as things go. In fact it was so good an average that the Lutheran guards were as over-worked as a floorwalker's index finger.

Bell of Thiel, after 19 minutes of the first half were over, chalked up the first and last field goal for the period. He stood in the center ring on the floor and let go a long range shot that swished through beautifully.

Second Half Rough

In the second half Thiel became desperate and as a result the game took on the semblance of a hockey game combined with that old Irish tennis sport known as lacrosse. Referee Calvin Bolster had to remind one or two of the players that the contest was not indoor football before they settled down to the legitimate business of bouncing the ball instead of their opponents.

Westminster ran the score up 27-8 in the first eight minutes of the second half. Thiel called time out when the score 28-8 and nine minutes to play. Wardie made the second field goal of the evening for Thiel following this rest period, and then Delahunty, who had been on the bench during the entire game, went in and chalked up seven points in three minutes and then retired from the game.

Phil Rice and Marsh Fisher handled the guarding jobs in excellent fashion for all but the last four minutes of action when they were replaced by Considine and Blanner. Captain O'Donovan and Crowell, with 11 and 12 points respectively, led the offense. Kecheran, playing forward in place of Delahunty, also played good ball on both offense and defense.

For Thiel, Wardie and Morris were the four persons who took the lead in the game. Wardie made the first shot of the boys. Both Coaches used 11 players in the game.

The lineup: Westminster—Delahunty for Kecheran, Brownlee for Crowell, Hamas for O'Donovan, Considine for Rice, Blanner for Fisher, Dvorznak for Delahunty, Thiel—Lawson for Frampton, Bell for Meyers, Barker for Morris, Barber for McCoy, Hendrickson for Wardie, Reinhold for McCoy.

Field goals: Westminster—Kocheran 3, O'Donovan 3, Crowell 6, Rice 1, Delahunty 2, Brownlee 2, Thiel—Morris 1, Wardie 1, Bell 1, Foulis Westminster—10 out of 15, Thiel—10 out of 14. Referee, Calvin Bolster.

Three Games On Y. M. C. A. Floor Saturday Night

Central Christians Beat Baptists; Lutherans Down Epworth; Boosters Top Seniors

Three basketball games were played on the Y. M. C. A. floor on Saturday night. Two in the New Castle Church League and one in the City League.

In the first game of the bill the Central Christians remained undefeated for the year by topping the First Baptists by a score of 23 to 14. The game was exciting and interesting all the way. At the end of the first half the score favored the Christians 7 to 6, through the fine foul shooting of Cowmeadow who had five out of six fouls for the first two quarters, and by a field goal by Earl Bauman. T. Wallace, and B. Wallace had field goals for the Baptists the first half, with Brenner supplying two fouls. In the second half the Christians held the Baptists to another pair of field goals, and two fouls, while they themselves collected seven field goals, and two fouls.

Lutherans Take Victory

The St. John's Lutheran broke into the victory column by a one-point win over the Epworth M. E. team in a well played game. The final tally was 21 to 20. The Epworth boys had a lead of 10 to 9 at the end of the first half, through the fine work of Shaffer and Mancine for the Epworth team, and Kelso, Rhyal and Daugherty for the Lutherans. In the second half the Lutherans outscored the Epworth team from the field by a lone marker to take the victory. The playing of Kelso, Carlson, Daugherty and Miller featured for the winners, with Mancine, and Shaffer the best for the losers.

In the City League tilt the Boosters added another victory by socking the "Y" Seniors 29 to 22, in a good game. The score at the half was 13 to 6 in favor of the Boosters, with Uhle and Kulich leading the attack. The Boosters continued their fine playing in the second half and ran up sixteen more points, to match sixteen by the Seniors.

Trades Expected To Follow Meeting Of Big League Officials In New York

VANCE AND GRIMES PLACED ON "BLOCK"

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The annual Hot and Mouth convention, so called because it is equally hard on each, will get under way today with the annual meetings of the International and Eastern leagues, followed by the schedule meeting of the National League tomorrow.

They hold a schedule meeting every year, largely because it feels so good when they stop. There is no other purpose for the thing, since the schedule is always approved, Ad Lib and Per Se, but there is ever the possibility that a magnate will lose his presence of mind under a potted palm in the lobby and so commit himself to something really constructive. This possibility breathes life and hope into a program that otherwise is defunct, by choice.

Vance On "Block"

The Brooklyn Dodgers, for instance, may try to hawk Dazzy Vance to the Cubs or Pirates or any other club that is willing to support the dazzer in the manner to which he is accustomed. This represents about $20,000 a year in money, not to mention the players that would be tossed in by way of emphasis and for good measures, as the interest of the meeting in Mr. Vance may turn out to be pardonably tepid.

Perhaps the Pittsburgh club will try to do something with Burleigh Grimes, another fretful young man who has a vulgar interest in money, thereby differing from the average club owner. The latter has absolutely no interest in money, as long as it isn't his. Adolfo Luque may be offered for trade by the Reds and the Cubs are understood to be about to swing a deal with another first division for a catcher but otherwise nothing is supposed to be contemplated.

This is ominous. Baseball has a genius for doing nothing that is expected of it and, by nightfall it may have half of the National League traded to Fort Wayne, Ind.

Civil War Exists

The so-called Brooklyn situation will go for another airing and this time it probably will be settled definitely, for it is all very simple. The only trouble in Brooklyn is that President Wilbert Robinson refuses to fire manager Wilbert Robinson at the

NEW YORK STOCKS

Bullish Interests Turn To Railroad Stocks

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Bullish interests in the stock market turned to railroad shares at the beginning of the new week. Encouraged by the buoyant movements in industrials last week and considering that the rails and traders distributed liberal buying orders for New York Central, Pennsylvania, New Haven and other well known railroad shares.

In anticipation of favorable dividend action in the near future, Missouri-Kansas-Texas common pushed ahead to the year's highest price at 55. Allegheny Corporation, The Van Sweringen Holding Corporation, gained more than a point at 39 1/2, in heavy trading, with the first sale of the day a turnover of 15,000 shares.

At the head of the high-priced rails, jumped 6 points to 238 1/2. Loews, Warner Brothers, Fox Film and Paramount, the leading amusement stocks, carried to a slightly higher level the rise in prices which featured last week's market.

Loews, reaching a new high for the year at 238 1/2, transactions in the first half-hour totaled 623,400 shares, and with the ticker running about ten minutes behind the market, this was one of the busiest first-periods since December.

Another break of $1.50 a bale in cotton on the New York Cotton exchange, bringing March to 16.00 cents a pound, was an unsettling factor for the stock market and selling increased as the morning sessions advanced.

This selling caused further congestion in the market and reports over the ticker were 18 minutes late in the second hour. United States Steel reacted nearly 2 points to 182 1/2, and leading industrial and specialty shares settled down a point or two. There were exceptions to the rule, Auburn Auto forging ahead 4 points to 235 and American Smelting topping 75 in active trading.

The week-end reports from the steel, automobile and other important sections of American industry were encouraged as indicating the continuance of the rallies reported last week.

The National City Bank, in its monthly business review, said that January has witnessed "an impressive comeback" in industrial activity, citing that some of the steel concerns were now operating at 100 per cent capacity. The selling which disturbed the cotton market was mostly of foreign origin.

Despite heavy trading, near the close of the active stocks moved through a comparatively inactive range of prices. The industrial list as a whole withstood profit taking and short selling without giving ground and bulletins from the stock exchange floor showed prices not substantially different from those appearing on the tape.

Call money renewals were posted at 4 1/2 per cent.
